2006 ALL-STAR GAME
July 11, 2006 - PNC Park - Pittsburgh, PA

The 2006 All-Star Game, which is scheduled to be played in Pittsburgh on July 11, 2006, will be the 77th Midsummer Classic. The first Major League Baseball All-Star Game was played in 1933 at Chicago's Comiskey Park. It was the first event of its kind in professional sports. The MLB All-Star Game is the oldest of the four major professional sports yet it remains the most popular and most watched.

Major League Baseball's All-Star Week encompasses five days of events, culminating with the All-Star Game. More than 250,000 people are expected to be a part of the All-Star experience in Pittsburgh. All-Star Fan Fest will run from July 7-11 at the David L. Lawrence Convention Center. The interactive baseball theme park drew more than 90,000 fans in Detroit last year.

Taco Bell® All-Star Sunday features both the XM Satellite Radio All-Star Futures Game and the Taco Bell® All-Star Legends and Celebrity Softball Game. The Futures Game pits the brightest of baseball's rising stars against each other in a U.S. vs. World format. Gatorade All-Star Workout Day is highlighted by the Century 21 Home Run Derby and attracts a sellout crowd.

Media Coverage

Through Major League Baseball International, the 2005 All-Star Game was broadcast to 215 countries worldwide and was available in 13 languages. More than 100 million fans around the world watched or listened to the 2005 All-Star events via television, radio and the Internet.

More than 1,500 members of the media were in attendance at the 2005 Midsummer Classic in Detroit. FOX Sports will once again provide exclusive domestic television coverage for the 77th All-Star Game in Pittsburgh. ESPN will provide exclusive television coverage of several other All-Star Week events, including the All-Star Futures Game, the Taco Bell® All-Star Legends/Celebrity Softball Game, and the Century 21 Home Run Derby.

Pittsburgh's All-Star History

The 2006 All-Star Game will be the fifth for the city of Pittsburgh. In 1944, Pittsburgh and Forbes Field played host to the ninth Midsummer Classic. The National League stopped a three-game losing streak that year, winning a 7-1 decision. Phil Cavarretta of the Cubs set an All-Star Game record by reaching base safely in five plate appearances.

The All-Star Game, a Midsummer fixture since 1933, became a double feature in 1959. The first game that year was played in Pittsburgh, the second in Los Angeles. Willie Mays hits a game winning triple in the bottom of the 8th to rally the N.L. to a 5-4 victory at Forbes Field.

In 1974, Three Rivers Stadium plays host to the contest for the first time. The National League wins the third in what will become an 11-game winning streak by the score of 7-2. Steve Garvey, voted to the team as a write-in candidate, wins the Most Valuable Player award and Pirates righthander Ken Brett is the winning pitcher.

The 1994 game remains one of the most exciting finishes in history. The N.L. snapped its six-game losing streak when Fred McGriff's pinch-hit two run homer in the bottom of the 9th sends the game into extra innings and Tony Gwynn scores on a close play at the plate in the 10th inning. The game at Three Rivers Stadium draws 59,568 fans.

With the 2006 contest being played at PNC Park, the Pirates become the first team in baseball history to host the All-Star Game in three different venues.

Economic Impact at Recent All-Star Games

Year	Host City	Economic Impact
2005	Detroit	$50-55 million (projected)
2004	Houston	$65 million
2003	Chicago	$60 million
2002	Milwaukee	$50 million
2001	Seattle	$50 million
2000	Atlanta	$49 million
1999	Boston	$65 million
1998	Denver	$40.5 million
1997	Cleveland	$37.6 million
1996	Philadelphia	$55.9 million
1995	Texas	(divided among three cities)
1994	Pittsburgh	$44.3 million

DID YOU KNOW... That the Pirates are hosting Major League Baseball's All-Star Game for a record-tying fifth time in 2006 (also the Cleveland Indians). PNC Park will also be the third different venue in Pittsburgh to host the Midsummer Classic, a record among all major league teams. The game was also played at Forbes Field in 1944 & 1959 and Three Rivers Stadium in 1974 & 1994.

Starters in Bold Rookies in Italics

DID YOU KNOW... That Bucco lefthander Ken Brett was the winning pitcher in the 1974 All-Star Game, which was played at Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh. He was the Pirates lone representative that year and tossed 2.0 scoreless innings of relief in the National League's 7-2 victory over the American League.

1944 All-Star Game

July 11 - Forbes Field

National League 7, American League 1

The American League entered the 1944 All-Star Game riding a three game winning streak over the Senior Circuit. But in the first of two All-Star Games played at Forbes Field, the National League prevailed by a score of 7-1. Three members of the Pittsburgh Pirates were represented at the Midsummer Classic. Pittsburgh's Bob Elliott started at third base for the National League squad. Vince DiMaggio entered the game as a defensive replacement in center field and Pittsburgh's Rip Sewell tossed 3.0 innings of shutout ball.

A total of 29,589 fans passed through the turnstiles at Forbes Field for a game that took just 2:11 to play. The Cubs' Phil Cavarretta tied an All-Star Game record after reaching base safely in five attempts.

The American League staked itself to a 1-0 lead in the second inning on a run-scoring single by pitcher Hank Borowy.

But in the bottom of the fifth, the National League answered with four runs on five hits. They also tacked on a pair of runs in the seventh inning and another in the eighth.

Pittsburgh's Rip Sewell took the mound in the sixth inning. The Pirates righthander twirled three scoreless innings while not allowing a hit as the National League held the American Leaguers to just six singles in the game.

1959 All-Star Game (Game One)

July 7 - Forbes Field

National League 5, American League 4

For the first time in the history of the Midsummer Classic, the All-Star Game was a double feature. The regularly scheduled game was played in Pittsburgh at Forbes Field as part of the city's bicentennial celebration. The second All-Star Game was played on August 3 at Memorial Stadium in Los Angeles, CA. Vice President Richard Nixon was one of the 35,277 fans who attended the game at Forbes Field.

Shortstop Dick Groat, second baseman Bill Mazeroski, pitcher ElRoy Face and catcher Smoky Burgess represented the Pirates at the first game of the 1959 Midsummer Classic. Burgess was the only Pittsburgh representative not to see any action in the game.

Don Drysdale started for the National League and tossed three perfect innings.

Pittsburgh's Bill Mazeroski helped stake the N.L. squad to a 3-1 lead in the seventh inning with a run-scoring single.

The National League held a 3-1 lead heading into the eighth inning. Face, who was 12-0 during the regular season at the time, retired the first two batters he faced before allowing two singles, a walk and a three-run double to Baltimore's Gus Triandos, which put the A.L ahead 4-3.

But in the bottom of the eighth, the N.L. answered with a pair of runs, highlighted by a game-winning triple by Willie Mays.

1974 All-Star Game

July 23 - Three Rivers Stadium

National League 7, American League 2

The National League continued its mastery over the American League in the first All-Star Game held at Three Rivers Stadium. American League President Lee MacPhail ordered manager Dick Williams to use only the best players during the entire game, but to no avail.

The National League won for the 11th time in 12 tries, beating the Junior Circuit by a score of 7-2.

More importantly, the win had a hometown flavor as Pirates pitcher Ken Brett earned the win after tossing 2.0 innings of shutout ball in relief of starter Andy Messersmith. Brett was the Pirates only representative at the game, which was played in front of a hometown crowd of 50,706 fans.

The American League held an early 2-1 lead after three innings of play. But the National League went ahead for good in the bottom of the fourth inning and never looked back. All four American League hurlers surrendered at least one run in the game.

Reggie Smith of the Dodgers hit the game's only home run, taking Jim "Catfish" Hunter deep in the seventh inning.

The American League was held to just four hits by five N.L. pitchers.

Los Angeles' Steve Garvey, who was voted to the team as a write-in candidate, took home MVP honors after going 2-for-4 with a double and an RBI.

1994 All-Star Game

July 12 - Three Rivers Stadium

National League 8, American League 7 (10 innings)

The largest crowd to ever see a baseball game at Three Rivers Stadium witnessed one of the most dramatic contests in the 65th All-Star Game.

A total of 59,568 fans watched the National League score three times in the final two innings to halt the American League's six-game winning streak. Pittsburgh representative Carlos Garcia entered the game as a defensive replacement at second base and went 1-for-2 in front of the hometown crowd.

The American League held a 7-5 lead after eight innings. But in the bottom of the ninth, Atlanta's Fred McGriff stepped to the plate in a pinch-hit appearance. McGriff responded with a two-run homer off Baltimore's Lee Smith which tied the game at 7-7.

Philadelphia's Doug Jones came in to pitch the tenth inning for the National League. The A.L. put runners at the corners with two out, but Jones struck out Minnesota's Chuck Knoblauch to end the A.L. threat.

In the bottom of the tenth, the National League put the game away. San Diego's Tony Gwynn opened the inning with a single off White Sox hurler Jason Bere. Former Pirate Moises Alou then stepped to the plate and swatted a double to the gap in left-center field. Gwynn was waved home by Third Base Coach Jim Leyland (Pittsburgh's Manager) and just beat the tag applied by Texas catcher Ivan Rodriguez, giving the National League a thrilling, 8-7 come-from-behind win.

CEO & Managing General Partner

KEVIN McCLATCHY

Kevin McClatchy is the Chief Executive Officer and Managing General Partner of the Pittsburgh Pirates and is responsible for leading the day-to-day operations of the franchise. In this role, McClatchy works closely with the senior management team in achieving the organization's on- and off-the-field objectives. McClatchy also holds a leadership position within Major League Baseball by serving on MLB's Executive Council, International Committee and Labor Committee.

Since leading the ownership group that purchased the franchise in 1996, McClatchy has been involved with a variety of important initiatives with the Pirates. As the youngest owner in baseball at that time, McClatchy recognized the importance of keeping the Pirates in Pittsburgh and did so with the strong support of the community. Maintaining a combination of tenacity and ingenuity throughout a grueling nine-month effort, McClatchy organized a group of civic-minded individuals and local corporations to save the franchise.

McClatchy will be long remembered for building the best ballpark in America. On August 6, 1998, PNC Bank struck a deal with the Pirates to call the new venue PNC Park, and on March 31, 2001, McClatchy's vision of a new baseball-only ballpark became a reality as the Pirates hosted the New York Mets in the first-ever game played at PNC Park.

The park has received many glowing reviews from national and local media during its first five seasons of play, including the ranking of "The Best Ballpark in America" by ESPN.com during the summer of 2003. The park has also served as a backdrop for ESPN's 25th Anniversary Show in 2004, for the NBC Nightly News in January of 2005 and for major concerts, including Bruce Springsteen and The Rolling Stones.

Another example of McClatchy's ongoing commitment to the Pittsburgh region can be seen through his work in bringing the Major League Baseball All-Star Game to Pittsburgh in 2006. He was instrumental in bringing the game and its positive community impact back to the region only 12 seasons removed from the last All-Star Game in Pittsburgh.

McClatchy has received numerous awards for his contribution to the Pittsburgh community. In 2006, he received the Distinguished Leadership award from the Southwestern Pennsylvania chapter of the American Red Cross. He was recognized by the Pittsburgh Chapter of Big Brothers/Big Sisters with a roast in his honor in November of 2004 and by the Diocese of Pittsburgh's Northside Schools in November of 2002. He was honored by the Anti-Defamation League as its Man-of-the-Year, receiving the American Heritage Award in January of 2001. He was honored by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette for his leadership role in assuring the continued presence of the Pirates in Pittsburgh into the new century at the annual Dapper Dan dinner in February of 2000 and was also named by Vectors/Pittsburgh as its Man-of-the-Year for 1999. For his commitment to keeping the club in Pittsburgh and stressing the importance of a new baseball-only venue, in addition to making over 100 speaking engagements in the tri-state area, In Pittsburgh news weekly named McClatchy its "Person-of-the-Year" in 1997.

Before becoming the fifth owner of the storied franchise, McClatchy served as National Sales Manager for the Newspaper Network, a subsidiary of McClatchy Newspapers. The McClatchy family, which founded The Sacramento Bee newspaper in 1857, has more than 20 different newspapers in 10 states nationwide. McClatchy's professional career began at WPLG-TV, the ABC affiliate in Miami, where he served as a sports producer. He later joined Knight-Ridder Newspapers and spent four years in the national advertising and marketing department at The Miami Herald. In 1990, McClatchy returned to California, where he ran the daily business operations for The Amador Ledger-Dispatch and continued to work in the advertising and marketing departments for McClatchy Newspapers.

Senior VP & General Manager

DAVE LITTLEFIELD

Dave Littlefield was named Senior Vice President and General Manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates on July 13, 2001, thus becoming the 11th G.M. in the history of the club.

During the recent off-season, Littlefield and his staff hired a new manager (Jim Tracy) and a complete coaching staff, signed the 2004 National League Rookie-of-the-Year and 2005 All-Star Jason Bay to a four-year contract and acquired many veteran players (Sean Casey, Joe Randa, Roberto Hernandez, Damaso Marte & Jeromy Burnitz) to complement the group of younger players already with the team (Jack Wilson, Jose Castillo, Mike Gonzalez, Chris Duffy, Zach Duke and Ryan Doumit among others).

In his first full season with the Pirates, the major league club showed a 10-game improvement from the 2001 campaign and Pittsburgh's minor league clubs combined to win 399 games and produce the second-winningest farm system among all major league teams. For his efforts and the those of his staff, the Pirates were named the 2002 Organization-of-the-Year by Topps.

Before joining the Pirates, Littlefield served the Florida Marlins as Vice President and Assistant General Manager under Dave Dombrowski, a position he held since March 6, 2000. With the Marlins, he assisted the GM in all aspects of baseball operations and was in charge of the club's scouting efforts in the Far East. In addition, he supervised the construction of the Marlins new baseball academy in the Dominican Republic.

Dave was named the Marlins Assistant General Manager on November 6, 1998, after spending parts of three seasons as the Director of Player Development for the Montreal Expos. Littlefield joined the Expos scouting department in November of 1991 as a National Crosschecker and East Coast Supervisor. He also spent three years in the Detroit Tigers organization as an area scout and East Coast Scouting Supervisor.

Prior to his major league baseball career, Dave served as an Assistant Baseball Coach for three seasons at the University of Massachusetts, followed by three seasons in the same capacity at Clemson University. He earned a bachelor's degree in Marketing and a master's degree in Sport Management from the University of Massachusetts. In addition, Dave earned a Varsity letter in 1981 while playing linebacker for the UMass football team.

A graduate of Portland (ME) High School, Littlefield was signed as a free agent catcher by the Philadelphia Phillies and spent three years playing in the Phillies and Yankees farm systems.

PERSONAL: David M. Littlefield, Jr....Born on 6/16/60 in Portland, ME...Wife's name is Joanna...Two children; daughter Andrea (9) and son Derrick (8)...His brother Scott is the National Crosschecker for the San Diego Padres and his brother Mark is the Head Athletic Trainer for the New York Yankees minor league system...His uncle, Dick Capp, attended Boston College and played one season as an end with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1968).

Special Assistant to the General Manager

LOUIE ELJAUA

Louie Eljaua (pronounced "EL hawa") is in his third season with the Pirates, having been named a Special Assistant to General Manager Dave Littlefield on January 5, 2004.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Eljaua worked with the Boston Red Sox as their Director of International Scouting for two seasons (2002-2003). During that time, he oversaw the construction of the Dominican Academy, a $3 million complex which will serve as a year-round training facility in El Toro, Dominican Republic. The Red Sox are now one of four major league teams to own and operate such a facility (also Los Angeles, Oakland and Anaheim).

Before working with the Red Sox, Eljaua spent nine years with the Florida Marlins, beginning as an area scout in 1992. He was also involved in Latin American scouting while working with the Marlins. Louie left the Florida organization in 1998 and served the Detroit Tigers as a special assignment scout for one year. He rejoined the Marlins staff in 1999 as their Director of Latin America scouting. In his tenure, Eljaua was responsible for signing 2004 All-Stars Miguel Cabrera and Livan Hernandez.

Eljaua was a four-year letterman while playing baseball at Monsignor Pace High School in Miami, FL, winning state championships his sophomore and senior seasons. He worked as a graduate assistant coach for St. Thomas University (FL) in 1991 prior to joining the Florida organization on a full-time basis.

PERSONAL: Louie was born on 6/9/69 in Miami, FL...He is single and resides in Miami.

Special Assistant to the General Manager

JESSE FLORES

Jesse Flores was added to Dave Littlefield's staff on November 27, 2001.

Flores, who worked for the Pirates as their Northern California scout for three years (1990-92), spent the previous two seasons as the National Crosschecker and the West Coast Scouting Supervisor for the Cleveland Indians. He joined the Cleveland organization in 1993 and served as the West Coast Scouting Supervisor for six years.

After signing with Toronto in 1978, the former right-handed pitcher spent four years playing minor league baseball, advancing as high as the Double-A level. After retiring as a player, he spent one year as the Pitching Coach with Sacramento State University and one season in the same capacity with Sacramento City College before joining the California Angels scouting department in 1984.

PERSONAL: Jesse was born on 10/5/55 in Sacramento, CA...He and his wife Doris reside in Sacramento with their four children; daughters Amy (21), Katy (19) and Melissa (14) and son Jay (16).

Special Assistant to the General Manager

JAX ROBERTSON

Jax Robertson joined the Pittsburgh organization as a special assistant to General Manager Dave Littlefield on January 22, 2002.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Robertson spent two years working as a professional scout with the Florida Marlins. He also worked for the Marlins as their national crosschecker for eight years (1992-1999).

Before joining Florida's scouting staff, Robertson served the Detroit Tigers as their Director of Scouting for four years (1988-1991). He joined the Detroit organization in 1982 and assumed various roles within the scouting department prior to being named Director.

A catcher during his playing days, Robertson signed a professional contract with the Cubs in 1974 and spent one season in their minor league system. After receiving a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University, he joined the New York Yankees scouting staff and was responsible for signing Don Mattingly after the club selected him in the 19th round of the 1979 free agent draft. Robertson worked with New York for four years (1977-1980) and then served Old Dominion University as an assistant baseball coach before joining Detroit.

PERSONAL: Jax was born on 3/4/52 in Milwaukee, WI...He and his wife Cindy reside in Cary, NC...The couple has two children; son Matt (24) and daughter Lindsay (18)...Was inducted into the Mid Atlantic Scout Association (MASA) Hall-of-Fame during the 2004 season.

Special Assistant to the General Manager

PETE VUCKOVICH

Pete Vuckovich returned to the front office in 2001 after spending four seasons as the Pirates Pitching Coach at the major league level. He served the club as Assistant General Manager and Director of Player Personnel during the 1996 campaign.

Vuckovich's association with the Bucs began in 1992. He served the club as its minor league pitching coordinator for two seasons and was a special assistant to former General Manager Cam Bonifay in 1994 and 1995.

The Johnstown, PA, native pitched 11 seasons in the major leagues after being selected by the Chicago White Sox in the third round of the 1974 June free agent draft. He made his major league debut with the ChiSox on 8/3/75 and spent the entire 1976 season with Chicago before being selected by Toronto in the American League expansion draft on 11/5/76.

In 286 major league games, Pete compiled a 93-69 record and a 3.66 ERA. The highlight of his career came in 1982 when he went 18-6 for Milwaukee, won the A.L. Cy Young Award and helped the Brewers earn a World Series berth against St. Louis. Arm problems forced him to retire prior to the 1987 season.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Vuke worked as a color commentator for Brewers baseball with WCGV-TV for three seasons (1989-1991).

PERSONAL: Pete was born on 10/27/52 in Johnstown, PA...He and his wife Anna reside in Johnstown and have three sons; Lazo (28), Pete Jr. (25) and Damian (23)...Is a graduate of Conemaugh Valley (PA) High School, where he was a three-sport star in baseball, basketball and football...Also played baseball at Clarion (PA) State College and was an all-conference performer for three years and was twice named team MVP and NAIA All-American in 1974...Starred as Yankees first baseman, Clu Heyward, in the motion picture Major League.

JIM TRACY

23 — MANAGER

AGE: 50 — BORN: 12/31/55 in Hamilton, OH

RESIDES: Claremont, CA — PLAYING POSITION: OF/1B

APPOINTED: 10/11/05 — CONTRACT: Signed thru 2008

AWARDS & HONORS: Coach for 2002 National League All-Star Team.
1993 Eastern League Manager-of-the-Year.

Jim Tracy was named the 37th manager in the history of the Pirates on October 11, 2005. He replaced interim manager Pete Mackanin, who managed the club to a 12-14 record after Lloyd McClendon was relieved of his duties on September 6, 2005. The 2006 season will be Tracy's 30th in professional baseball.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Tracy spent five years as manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers. In that time, he recorded a 427-383 (.527) regular season record while guiding the club to a 93-69 record and a first-place finish in 2004 (the Cardinals defeated the Dodgers, three-games-to-one, in the N.L. Division Series). For his efforts in 2004, Tracy finished third in the Manager-of-the-Year balloting behind Atlanta's Bobby Cox and St. Louis' Tony La Russa.

In his first year as a major league skipper, Tracy led the Dodgers to an 86-76 record and a third-place finish despite having to use the disabled list 20 times with players missing over a combined 600 games. During the 2001 season, the Dodgers had at least a share of first place for 39 days and never trailed by more than 7.5 games.

In 2002, the Dodgers were one of three major league teams to register 90 or more victories and not qualify for the post season, joining the Boston Red Sox (93) and Seattle Mariners (93) with that distinction. During the season, Tracy and Montreal manager Frank Robinson served as coaches for the National League squad at the 73rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game on July 9 at Miller Park in Milwaukee. With his participation in the All-Star Game, Jim became the first Dodgers manager since Hall of Famer Tommy Lasorda in 1993 to be named an All-Star coach.

During the 2003 campaign, Tracy won his 200th career game on May 16 vs. Florida and guided the Dodgers to an 85-77 record and a second place finish in the West Division race. He picked up career win #300 on June 20, 2004 vs. New York (AL) and earned his 400th victory on July 22, 2005 vs. New York (NL).

Tracy became the 24th manager in Dodgers franchise history when he was named to the post on November 1, 2000. He served as interim manager from July 16-19, 2000 while former manager Davey Johnson was ill, and guided the Dodgers to a 3-1 record (those victories, by MLB rules, are credited to Johnson). Before being named manager of the Dodgers, Tracy served as the club's Bench Coach and coordinator of all on-field activities during spring training in 1999 and 2000.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Jim served as Bench Coach for four seasons under Montreal Expos manager Felipe Alou (1995-1998). He also posted a 501-486 (.508) record in seven seasons as a minor league manager with Peoria (1987-88), Chattanooga (1989-1991), Harrisburg (1993) and Ottawa (1994). Tracy won the Eastern League title and was named Manager-of-the-Year after guiding Harrisburg (Expos' AA) to a 94-44 record in 1993. The Senators were also named Minor League Team-of-the-Year by Baseball America. He also worked for the Reds as their Minor League Field Coordinator in 1992.

Originally selected by the Cubs in the fourth round of the 1977 January First-Year Player Draft, Tracy made his professional playing debut with Pompano Beach in 1977. After winning the Texas League batting title with a .355 average for Midland in 1979, he made his major league debut with the Cubs in 1980 and batted .249 (46-for-185) with three home runs and 14 RBI in parts of two big-league seasons with Chicago (1980-81). Jim made his big-league debut as a pinch hitter on 7/21/80 and singled off San Francisco's Ed Whitson for his first major league hit the following day. He hit all three of his big league home runs at Wrigley Field, connecting off Philadelphia's Dick Ruthven on 9/21/80, Montreal's Bill Gullickson on 9/25/80 and Pittsburgh's Jim Bibby on 9/27/80. Tracy also played two years in Japan (1983-84) before retiring as a player following a brief stint with Tucson in 1984.

PERSONAL: James Edwin Tracy...Wife's name is Debra...Has three sons; Brian (12/22/83), Chad (7/4/85) and Mark (1/1/88)...Is a 1974 graduate of Badin High School in Hamilton, OH, where he played football, basketball and baseball...Is a member of that school's sports Hall of Fame...Attended Marietta (OH) College and batted .325 as a freshman in 1975 to help squad reach the Ohio Conference and NCAA Division II Mideast Regional Championships and a second-place finish in the NCAA Division II World Series...Hit .411 and was an NCAA Division III All-American selection as a sophomore in 1976...Is also a member of the Marietta College Sports Hall of Fame, along with former Pirates Kent Tekulve and Terry Mulholland...Received the school's Distinguished Alumnus Award during the 2003 off-season...His father, Jim Sr., played minor league baseball for the Phillies and Giants from 1948-1951...His son, Brian, was selected by the Dodgers in the 21st round of the 2002 June draft, but chose to play baseball at UC Santa Barbara...His son, Chad, is playing baseball at Pepperdine...His youngest son, Mark, is a senior at Claremont (CA) High School, where he plays baseball and football.

DID YOU KNOW... That Jim Tracy grew up in the same neighborhood as former Bucco reliever Kent Tekulve. They were both standouts on the Marietta (OH) College baseball team.

JIM COLBORN

48 — PITCHING COACH

AGE: 59 (turns 60 on May 22) — BORN: 5/22/46 in Santa Paula, CA

RESIDES: Ventura, CA — PLAYING POSITION: RHP

APPOINTED: 11/1/05 — CONTRACT: Signed thru 2006

AWARDS & HONORS: Tossed no-hitter vs. Texas on May 14, 1977.
1973 American League All-Star.

Jim Colborn is in his first season as Pitching Coach of the Pirates, having been named to the post on November 1, 2005. He also worked in the same capacity with Manager Jim Tracy in Los Angeles the last five seasons (2001-05).

Under his guidance, the Dodgers pitching staff ranked among the top four in ERA among National League clubs in three of the last four seasons, including a Major League best 3.16 mark and 17 shutouts in 2003. His 2003 staff also established a franchise record with 1,289 strikeouts, joining the 2003 Chicago Cubs to become the first two teams since the 1968 Cleveland Indians to register more strikeouts than hits allowed.

In his first season as Pitching Coach with Los Angeles, the Dodgers were forced to utilize 12 different starting pitchers, the most since the club record of 13 in 1964. In 2002, his staff finished third in ERA, first in shutouts and second in saves.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Colborn served as the Director of Pacific Rim Scouting for the Seattle Mariners for four years (1997-2000). During that time, he was instrumental in the signings of 2000 American League Rookie-of-the-Year Kazuhiro Sasaki and 2001 A.L. MVP Ichiro Suzuki.

Jim also worked as a professional coach and manager from 1984-1996, including four years as Pitching Coach for the Orix Blue Wave in the Japanese Pacific League. During his three seasons as a manager with West Michigan (1994-95) and Modesto (1996), he compiled a 223-192 record. His '96 squad posted the California League's second-best record (82-58).

Colborn spent 10 years as a pitcher in the major leagues, where he compiled a career record of 83-88, 60 complete games and a 3.80 ERA (1597.1ip/675er) with the Chicago Cubs, Milwaukee Brewers, Kansas City Royals and Seattle Mariners. A 20-game winner and an All-Star with Milwaukee in 1973, Colborn set a Brewers club record by pitching 314.1 innings that season. He also threw a no-hitter against Texas while pitching with the Royals on May 14, 1977, facing just one batter over the minimum (Toby Harrah was hit by a pitch in the 5th and Jim Sundberg walked in the 6th, but was erased on a double play).

PERSONAL: James William Colborn...Wife's name is Jennifer...Has four children; daughters Daisy (8/2/71), Rose (5/21/75) and Holly (12/8/76) and son Jimmy (10/28/79)...Attended Santa Paula (CA) High School, where he was captain of the baseball, football and basketball teams during his senior year...Is a 1967 graduate of Whittier College (CA), where he earned a bachelor's degree in Sociology...Also attended the University of Washington and Edinburgh University in Scotland on a Rotary Foundation Fellowship...Appeared in the motion picture "For the Love of the Game."

PIRATES WHO HAVE HIT FOR THE CYCLE

Hitting for the cycle (a single, double, triple and home run in the same game) is a feat that has been accomplished 23 times by 20 different Pittsburgh players. Fred Clarke, Arky Vaughan and Wally Westlake achieved the feat two times each. It has been accomplished just six times by a Bucco since the 1951 season and just once (Jason Kendall at Three Rivers Stadium on May 19, 2000) in the city of Pittsburgh in the last 56 years.

JEFF COX

45 — THIRD BASE COACH

AGE: 50 — BORN: 11/9/55 in Los Angeles, CA

RESIDES: West Covina, CA — PLAYING POSITION: INF

APPOINTED: 11/30/05 — CONTRACT: Signed thru 2006

AWARDS & HONORS: 1977 Southern League All-Star.

On November 30, 2005, Jeff Cox was named Pittsburgh's Third Base Coach. The 2006 season will mark his 34th year in baseball as a player, coach or manager.

During his seventh season as a major league coach in 2005, Cox served the Florida Marlins as their Third Base Coach, a position he also held in 2004. He began the 2003 campaign as Florida's Bench Coach under Manager Jeff Torberg, but took over as Bullpen Coach that season on May 11 when Jack McKeon was named manager. Cox was also Florida's Bullpen Coach to start the 2002 season, but spent the final two games as the team's Bench Coach.

Cox began the 2000 season as manager of Ottawa, Montreal's Triple-A affliate in the International League, but joined the Expos major league staff as Felipe Alou's Bench Coach on July 21. He also served the Expos as their Third Base Coach in 2001.

In a 14-year span from 1986 to 2000, Jeff spent 13 seasons as a minor league manager. The lone exception was in 1995, when he served under Manager Bob Boone as Kansas City's Third Base Coach.

His managerial career began with Billings (Reds' Rookie) in 1986 after he coached with Vermont (Reds' AA) in 1984-85. He spent two years (1987-88) managing in the Pirates organization, leading Watertown (A) to a division title in 1987. Cox began the '88 campaign as manager of Augusta, but was relieved of his duties on June 16 and finished the season as a coach with Eugene in the Northwest League.

Jeff spent a majority of his managerial career in the Kansas City farm system, guiding Memphis (AA) from 1989-1991 and Omaha (AAA) from 1992-1994. He led Memphis to a 73-71 regular season record and captured the Southern League championship in 1990.

Prior to being named the fifth manager in Ottawa history on December 7, 1998 and spending one and a half seasons there, Cox spent three seasons in the Atlanta Braves organization. He managed Greenville (AA) in 1996, served as the club's minor league field coordinator in 1997 and managed Richmond (AAA) in 1998.

In his 13 seasons as a minor league manager, Cox compiled a 736-863 record.

As a second baseman, Cox was signed to his first professional contract by the Kansas City Royals organization on August 23, 1973. He attended the Royals Baseball Academy in 1973 and 1974, but was released by the club on April 23, 1974. After signing with New Westminster as a free agent on June 9, he had his contract sold to the independent Portland club on June 24.

He was signed by Oakland as a free agent on June 16, 1975, and played four full seasons in the minors before making his major league debut with the Athletics on July 1, 1980 at Milwaukee. Jeff singled off Lary Sorensen for his first big-league hit the following day at County Stadium. Cox went 9-for-18 in his first five major league games. He also made two appearances with Oakland in 1981 (one as a pinch runner and one at second base), but did not receive an official at bat. In his 61 career games in the major leagues, the former infielder compiled a .213 (36-for-169) batting average and nine RBI.

Following his stint in the big leagues, Jeff spent time in the Oakland, Kansas City and Detroit minor league systems. During the 1984 season, he served as a player/coach in the Cincinnati Reds organization at Double-A Vermont. Cox set a Southern League record with 68 stolen bases at Chattanooga (AA) in 1977. He also finished second in the league with 78 runs scored that season and was selected to the All-Star Team. In 1979, Jeff finished second in the Pacific Coast League with 45 stolen bases while playing at Triple-A Ogden.

PERSONAL: Jeffrey Lindon Cox...Single...Is a 1973 graduate of South Hills High School in West Covina, CA, where he lettered in baseball, basketball and cross country...Named to California Interscholastic Federation first team in baseball and basketball as a senior...Attended Manatee Junior College in Bradenton, FL, while playing baseball at the Royals Baseball Academy...Played two years of basketball at Mount San Antonio College in Walnut, CA...Also attended California Polytechnic University at Pamona.

DID YOU KNOW... That Arizona's Mark Grace led all Major Leaguers with 1,754 hits while playing with the Cubs during the decade of the 1990's. The Pirates had three players who led a decade in hits - more than any other club. Honus Wagner banged out 1,847 hits in the 1900's, Paul Waner led all players with 1,959 hits in the 1930's and Roberto Clemente paced the majors with 1,877 hits in the 1960's.

BOBBY CUELLAR

17 — BULLPEN COACH

AGE: 53 (turns 54 on August 20) — BORN: 8/20/52 in Alice, TX

RESIDES: Alice, TX — PLAYING POSITION: RHP

APPOINTED: 11/16/05 — CONTRACT: Signed thru 2006

AWARDS & HONORS: 1976 Texas League All-Star.

Bobby Cuellar was named to Jim Tracy's coaching staff on November 16, 2005. The 2006 season will mark his eighth as a coach in the major leagues.

Cuellar spent the last four seasons (2002-2005) serving as Minnesota's Triple-A Pitching Coach. In 2005, his pitching staff at Rochester finished with the third-best ERA (4.14) among all International League teams. During his time spent in the Minnesota organization, Cuellar worked with 2004 A.L. Cy Young Award winner Johan Santana and Twins top prospect Francisco Liriano.

Prior to joining the Twins, Bobby served as the Bullpen Coach for the Texas Rangers during the 2001 season.

Cuellar served as Montreal's pitching coach from 1997 thru July 20, 2000. During his tenure with the Expos, Pedro Martinez won the National League Cy Young Award in 1997 and Ugueth Urbina was the major league's Fireman-of-the-Year in 1999, having led the league with 41 saves.

In 1995 and 1996, Bobby was the Pitching Coach with Seattle. The Mariners won the A.L. West Division title in 1995 with Randy Johnson capturing the A.L. Cy Young Award. Before joining Seattle at the major league level, Cuellar spent 12 seasons (1983-1994) in the club's minor league system as a manager and coach. His two years as a manager came in 1986 and 1987 with Wausau in the Midwest League, where he produced a 73-66 record in his first season and a 57-83 mark during his final campaign.

Originally selected by Texas in the 29th round of the 1974 June free agent draft as a right-handed pitcher from the University of Texas, Cuellar made his professional debut with Sarasota in 1974. His brief stint in the majors came with the Rangers in 1977, when he went 0-0 with a 1.29 ERA (7.0ip/1er) in four relief appearances. Bobby made his big-league debut on 9/9/77 at Seattle and retired each of the three batters he faced (Skip Jutze, Puchy Delgado & Steve Braun).

He also spent three seasons pitching in Cleveland's minor league system (1979-1981) and one year pitching in the Mexican League with Nuevo Laredo, where he ranked sixth with 11 saves in 1982. During his nine seasons of minor league action, Bobby compiled a 59-48 record, 80 saves and a 3.32 ERA (793.1ip/293er). He led the Carolina League with 17 saves while pitching with Lynchburg in 1975 and ranked second among Texas League relievers in saves (15) while hurling for San Antonio in 1976.

PERSONAL: Robert Cuellar (pronounced "KWAY-yarr")...Wife's name is Nora...Has three children; daughters Tiffany (3/8/80) and Emma (6/23/89) and son Bobby (9/28/83)...Is a 1970 graduate of William Adams High School in Alice, TX, where he played baseball and earned all-state honors his senior year...Also pitched four seasons at the University of Texas at Austin (1971-74)...Helped lead the Longhorns to four Southwest Conference titles and three College World Series appearances.

APPOINTED: 11/1/05 — CONTRACT: Signed thru 2006

Jim Lett was named Pittsburgh's Bench Coach on November 1, 2005. He was also a part of Manager Jim Tracy's staff in Los Angeles; as Bench Coach in 2005 and Bullpen Coach for the previous four seasons.

While overseeing the Dodgers bullpen, Los Angeles relievers ranked second in the major leagues with a 3.06 ERA in 2004. The year before he helped guide the pen to a major league low 2.46 ERA, the lowest mark by any bullpen since the 1990 Oakland Athletics posted a 2.35 ERA.

In his tenure as a coach in the majors, Lett has worked with four Cy Young Award recipients; Toronto's Pat Hentgen (1996 winner), two-time winner Roger Clemens (1997-98) and Eric Gagne (2003).

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Jim spent four seasons in the Toronto organization, first as a coach in 1997, then as Bench Coach under Manager Tim Johnson in 1998 and 1999. He served the club as the Assistant Director of Player Development in 2000.

Lett has worked in professional baseball as a player, coach, manager and front office executive in each of the last 32 years, having spent 24 of those years within the Cincinnati organization (1973-1996).

Jim began his career as a player with Bradenton (Reds' Rookie) in 1973. After playing three years of minor league baseball (1973-1975) and compiling a .256 batting average, six home runs and 110 RBI in 313 games, Lett began his managerial career with Shelby in the Western Carolinas League in 1977. He was selected as the league's Manager-of-the-Year in 1978 after guiding the club to a second-place finish and a 75-64 record.

In 1981, Lett managed Tampa to a first place finish in the Florida State League, but lost in the first round of the playoffs. After four more years of managing in the minors, Jim joined Cincinnati's major league staff as Bench Coach in 1986, a position he held through the 1989 campaign.

Lett returned to managing in 1990 and captured the South Atlantic League crown after leading Charleston (WV) to a 77-66 record and a first-place finish. He was also a coach with Nashville (Reds' AAA) for two years (1991-92) before serving the Cincinnati organization as its Minor League Field Coordinator from 1993-95. His final season with the Reds came in 1996 when he was Bench Coach at the major league level under Manager Ray Knight.

JEFF MANTO

30 — HITTING COACH

AGE: 41 (turns 42 on August 23) — BORN: 8/23/64 in Bristol, PA

RESIDES: Bristol, PA — PLAYING POSITION: INF

APPOINTED: 11/25/05 — CONTRACT: Signed thru 2006

AWARDS & HONORS: 1988 Texas League MVP.
1994 International League MVP.

After serving the Pittsburgh organization as its Minor League Roving Hitting Instructor the past three years, Jeff Manto was named Hitting Coach at the major league level on November 25, 2005.

Prior to joining the Pirates on October 17, 2002, Jeff spent the 2002 season as the manager of Class-A Lakewood (Phillies) in the South Atlantic League and led the team to a 69-70 record. He was also a coach for Lakewood in 2001.

Selected by the California Angels in the 14th round of the 1985 June draft, Manto played professionally for 16 years, including nine seasons in the majors with Cleveland (1990-91 & 1997-99), Philadelphia (1993), Baltimore (1995), Boston (1996), Seattle (1996), Detroit (1998), the New York Yankees (1999) and Colorado (2000).

Jeff made his pro debut with Quad City (Angels' A) in 1985. He was named MVP of the Texas League after hitting .301 with 24 home runs and 101 RBI in 120 games with Midland in 1988 and MVP of the International League after leading the circuit with 31 homers and 100 RBI in 1994. After being traded to the Indians in January of 1990, Manto made his major league debut with Cleveland on 6/7/90 vs. Detroit. He picked up his first big-league hit on 7/27/90, an RBI-single off Jeff Robinson in game two of a doubleheader vs. New York. Jeff connected off Jimmy Jones @Yankee Stadium for his first major league homer on 8/4/90.

His finest year in the majors came with Baltimore in 1995. In 89 games with the Orioles that season, Manto set career highs in nearly every offensive category, including hits (65), home runs (17) and RBI (38). During a stretch in which he started 37 straight games from May 17 - June 25, Jeff became the 24th player in major league history to homer in four consecutive at bats. He accomplished the feat over three games to tie another major league mark (he hit one on 6/8, two on 6/9 and one on 6/10).

In 289 major league games, Manto compiled a lifetime average of .230 (164-for-713), 31 home runs and 97 RBI. He also played 10 games with the Yomiuri Giants of the Japanese Central League in April of 1996. After signing his first pro contract with the Angels in 1985, Jeff played in over 1500 games in three countries, for 13 different organizations. In his career, he played all four infield positions, the outfield and catcher.

PERSONAL: Jeffrey Paul Manto...Wife's name is Denise...Has three children; daughters Gabrielle (5/27/94) and Andreana (2/10/97) and son Jeffrey (3/11/99)...Is a 1982 graduate of Bristol (PA) High School...Was originally selected by the New York Yankees in the 35th round of the 1982 June draft, but elected to attend Temple University in Philadelphia...Made transition from pitcher to infielder during his collegiate career at Temple...Hit .441 and established school record with 16 homers during junior season in 1985...Was selected by California in the 14th round of the '85 June draft, six picks before the Angels selected Bo Jackson...Was originally signed by Angels scout Al Goldis.

JOHN SHELBY

31 — FIRST BASE COACH

AGE: 48 — BORN: 2/23/58 in Lexington, KY

RESIDES: Lexington, KY — PLAYING POSITION: OF

APPOINTED: 11/11/05 — CONTRACT: Signed thru 2006

John Shelby was named Pittsburgh's First Base Coach on November 11, 2005. In addition, he will serve as the Pirates outfield instructor at the major league level. The 2006 season marks Shelby's 28th in professional baseball.

Prior to joining the Pirates coaching staff, John spent the previous 14 years in the Los Angeles Dodgers organization. He joined the major league coaching staff as First Base Coach on June 24, 1998, after beginning that season as a coach at Vero Beach.

After retiring as a player following the 1991 campaign, Shelby began his managerial career with the Pioneer League's independent Butte club in 1993. He then spent four years (1995-1997) managing in the Los Angeles minor league system, compiling a 265-286 record with Bakersfield (1994), San Antonio (1995-96) and Savannah (1997). In his five years as a minor league manager, he produced a 291-335 record.

Originally selected by Baltimore in the first round of the 1977 January free agent draft (20th pick overall), John spent five seasons in the minor leagues before making his major league debut with the Orioles on 9/15/81. He went 0-for-2 while only appearing in seven games as a September call-up that year. Shelby picked up his first big-league hit the following season, a double off the Yankees Shane Rawley on 9/14 (game one). He connected off Milwaukee's Mike Caldwell for his first major league home run on 10/1/82 (game two) in Baltimore.

John spent parts of 11 seasons in the Orioles organization before being traded to the Dodgers in May of 1987. He established career highs in home runs (21) and RBI (69) while playing 120 games with Los Angeles in '87 and hit .263 with 10 homers and 64 RBI for the World Champion Dodgers in 1988. Shelby also won a World Series with Baltimore in 1983, knocking in the game-winning run in Game Four against Philadelphia.

In his 11 seasons as a major league player with Baltimore (1981-1987), Los Angeles (1987-1990) and Detroit (1990-1991), Shelby compiled a .239 batting average, 70 home runs, 313 RBI and 98 stolen bases in 1,036 games. The former outfielder also batted .296 (8-for-27) with two RBI in 10 career World Series games.

PERSONAL: John T. Shelby, Jr....Wife's name is Trina...Has six children; sons John T. III (8/6/85), Jeremy (8/14/87), Justin (5/21/89), JaVon (5/6/95) and Jaren (10/30/98) and daughter Tiara (5/10/92)...Is a 1976 graduate of Henry Clay High School in Lexington, KY, where he played baseball (shortstop) and basketball and was an all-area performer...Also played one year of baseball at Columbia State Community College (TN)...His oldest son, John, is an infielder at the University of Kentucky and Jeremy is a freshman at Columbia State...John was named a second-team preseason All-American by Baseball America this year.

DeMeo is currently the Director of the Division of Sports Medicine and Vice Chairman of Clinical Affairs for the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at Allegheny General Hospital. In addition, he serves as Assistant Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery for the Drexel University School of Medicine.

He received his medical degree from Wayne State University in 1986 and served his internship and residencies at the Downstate Medical Center at the State University of New York. Dr. DeMeo was the recipient of a fellowship award from the Cleveland Clinic Foundation and is certified by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery. He was also honored by Vectors as Pittsburgh's Physician-of-the-Year in 2002.

In addition to his service with the Pirates, DeMeo serves as the President of Dapper Dan Charities in Pittsburgh.

Dr. DeMeo and his wife, Anita, have two children; son PJ (11) and daughter Kaitlyn (9).

Team Physician

DR. EDWARD SNELL

Dr. Edward Snell is in his seventh season as the Pirates Team Physician, having joined the staff in 2000.

In addition to his work with the Bucs, he has served as a medical consultant for a number of professional and amateur sports venues, including the Pittsburgh Penguins, the Pittsburgh Marathon, The Great Race, the NCAA tournament and the World Boxing Council. He was also the Medical Director of the Sports Medicine Clinic at The Rivers Club in Pittsburgh from 1995-1998.

Snell is currently a senior attending staff physician with Allegheny Orthopaedic Associates and is an Assistant Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery with the MCP Hahnemann University School of Medicine. He is also a director of the Sports Medicine Fellowship Program at Allegheny General Hospital in Pittsburgh and serves as an Assistant Professor of Orthopaedics at Drexel University in Philadelphia.

A native of Harrisburg, PA, Dr. Snell received undergraduate degrees in mathematics and chemistry from Franklin and Marshall College in Lancaster, PA, and his medical degree from the Pennsylvania State University College of Medicine in 1991. He completed his residency at St. Margarets Hospital in Pittsburgh and his fellowship training in sports medicine at the Cleveland Clinic Foundation in Ohio, where he also served as a physician for the Cleveland Cavaliers and the Cleveland Browns. Ed is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine, the American Medical Society of Sports Medicine, and the National Athletic Trainers Association. Snell also serves on the PIAA Sports Advisory Committee.

Dr. Snell and his wife Christine have two daughters; Emily (9) and Elizabeth (6).

Head Athletic Trainer

BRAD HENDERSON

Brad Henderson was named Head Athletic Trainer of the Pirates on December 2, 2002, after spending 15 years as the Assistant Athletic Trainer with the St. Louis Cardinals. He joined the Cardinals major league training staff in May of 1988 and had been a trainer in the St. Louis organization since 1985.

Henderson's first professional assignment was serving as trainer with the Johnson City club in the Appalachian League. He was also head trainer with Arkansas (Texas League) before joining St. Louis in 1988.

Brad has been a National Athletic Trainers Association member since 1986 and is licensed by the states of Pennsylvania, Missouri and Florida. He was the National League Assistant Trainer Representative to the PBAT Executive Committee for two years and served as trainer for the 2000 National League All-Star team. In addition, Brad has worked with the training staffs of the St. Louis football Cardinals and the University of Missouri's football and baseball teams.

A 1985 graduate of the University of Missouri, Brad and his wife Julie have a son; Blake (14) and a daughter; Brooke (12).

Assistant Athletic Trainer
MIKE SANDOVAL

Mike Sandoval joined the Pittsburgh Pirates major league athletic training staff when he was named assistant athletic trainer and major league rehab coordinator on November 8, 2000. In 2006, he will serve the club as assistant athletic trainer. Mike was also the trainer for the Mexican team during the 2006 World Baseball Classic.

The 2006 season will mark Sandoval's 20th as a trainer in the Pittsburgh organization. He began his professional career in 1987 while still in school at New Mexico State University, when he served as a trainer for the Watertown Pirates in the New York-Penn League. Mike also served the Bucs as a trainer at Princeton, WV (1988), Salem (1989), Harrisburg (1990), Carolina (1991, 1997-1998), Buffalo (1992-94), Calgary (1995), Augusta (1996) and Altoona (1999-2000).

During the inaugural season of the Arizona Fall League in 1992, Sandoval served as trainer for Phoenix. He did the same for Peoria during the 2000 off-season and with Kauai in the Hawaiian Winter League in both 1993 and 1994. Sandoval also spent winters as a trainer in Venezuela (1990) and the Dominican Republic (1991).

Mike and his wife, Dodie, have one son; Michael, Jr. (19). He is a 1988 graduate of New Mexico State University, where he earned a degree in physical education and sports medicine. A member of the 2002 Major League Athletic Trainers Staff-of-the-Year, Sandoval has been a NATA member since 1985 and was NATA certified in 1988. Mike was licensed by the state of Pennsylvania in 2001.

Conditioning Coordinator
FRANK VELASQUEZ

Frank Velasquez joined the Pittsburgh Pirates major league training staff when he was named to his current position on December 14, 2002.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Velasquez spent three years as the minor league conditioning & medical coordinator for the Texas Rangers. He also served the Texas organization as trainer at Charlotte (1997-1999) and Class-A Charleston, SC (1996).

A 1993 graduate of the University of Michigan, Frank served as a student athletic trainer from 1989 to 1993 while earning a Bachelor's degree in movement science. He also worked as a physical therapist in a rehabilitation center in Bay City, MI.

Frank and his wife, Carrie, reside in Pittsburgh. They have one son; Kaden (1).

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coordinator
KIYOSHI MOMOSE

Kiyoshi Momose is in his second season as the Pirates Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coordinator after working the previous three years (2002-2004) as the team's Videographer. He joined the major league staff in January of 2002, after working as the Pirates minor league assistant Conditioning Coach in 2001.

Momose assists Frank Velasquez with the day-to-day conditioning of the major league players, which includes nutrition, weight training programs and daily evaluations of the athletes.

Momose was born in Nagano, Japan and is a 1991 graduate of Misuzugaoka High School in Nagano. He earned a Bachelor's degree in physical education from Nippon College of Physical Education and his Master's degree in exercise physiology from the University of Central Florida. In addition, he is fluent in three languages (English, Japanese and Spanish).

Kiyoshi and his wife Heather reside in Wexford, PA.

Equipment Manager

ROGER WILSON

The 2006 season marks Roger's 31st in the major leagues and his 15th as the Equipment Manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates. He was named to his current position in December of 1991 after spending the previous 16 years as the visiting clubhouse manager for the Cincinnati Reds. In November of 2002, Wilson represented the Pirates on Major League Baseball's tour of Japan. He will serve as the home clubhouse manager for the 2006 All-Star Game at PNC Park.

Roger is responsible for ordering all equipment for the major league club in addition to maintaining the Pirates clubhouse at PNC Park. He also oversees the transfer and distribution of personal luggage and baseball equipment during team travel.

Wilson is a native of Cincinnati who graduated from Green Hills High School in 1971 and earned a degree in education from Wilmington College (OH) in 1976. He and his wife Sherry have two daughters, Ashley (22) and Whitney (17).

Visiting Clubhouse Manager

KEVIN CONRAD

Kevin Conrad was named the visiting clubhouse manager in January of 1998. In that role, he is responsible for maintaining a comfortable atmosphere in the visiting baseball clubhouse at PNC Park in addition to assisting Equipment Manager Roger Wilson in day-to-day clubhouse operations. In 2006, Kevin will serve as the American League clubhouse manager for the 2006 All-Star Game at PNC Park.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh organization, Conrad served as an assistant in the Philadelphia Phillies visiting clubhouse for six seasons. He also serves as the visiting clubhouse manager at McKechnie Field during spring training and has assisted Wilson during the Pirates stay in Bradenton, Florida, since 1995.

The 39-year-old native of Rahway, NJ, is a 1985 graduate of Roselle (NJ) Catholic High School.

Assistant Equipment Manager

SCOTT BONNETT

Scott "Bones" Bonnett joined the Pittsburgh organization on February 1, 2000. In his current role, he is responsible for helping to maintain a comfortable atmosphere in the Pirates clubhouse in addition to assisting equipment manager Roger Wilson in day-to-day operations.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Scott worked as an attendant in the visiting baseball clubhouse at Cinergy Field, the previous home of the Cincinnati Reds, for nine years (1991-1999). He also served the Cincinnati organization as a batboy for three seasons (1988-1990). Scott has also assisted Wilson the past six years during the Pirates spring training stay in Bradenton, Florida.

The 35-year-old Bonnett is a native of Cincinnati, OH, and is a graduate of Lakota High School. He also attended the University of Cincinnati and is a huge Bengals fan. Scott resides in Pittsburgh with his wife Christine and son Sawyer James (12/28/05).

Videographer

KEVIN ROACH

Kevin Roach is in his second season as the team's official videographer. In his current role, Kevin is responsible for videotaping each Pittsburgh batter and pitcher during every game, as well as taping a majority of every opponent's games. The tapes are then used by Manager Jim Tracy, along with the coaching staff and players, to analyze strengths and weaknesses in the players performance.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Roach spent five years as the assistant video coordinator for the Pittsburgh Panthers. In addition to assisting with the video efforts for the entire athletic department, he was the chief video contact for the men's basketball program.

Kevin also served as administrative assistant for the Cleveland State University men's basketball team for four years (1996-2000). While there, he coordinated the Cleveland State Benefit Golf Outing and was co-director of the Rollie Massimino Basketball Camp. Roach additionally worked with the Cleveland Browns media relations department and the Cleveland Indians video department. He also served as an administrative assistant for the Wichita State men's basketball team from 1995-1996 and the UNLV men's basketball team from 1992-1994.

A native of Syracuse, NY, Roach earned both his Master's in sport management and Bachelor's degree in communication from Cleveland State University. He also owns an Associate's degree in radio and television from Onondaga Community College. In addition, Kevin coached the Cleveland Basketball Club's AAU 15 & Under squad which advanced to the 1999 AAU National Tournament in Indianapolis.

PIRATES MINOR LEAGUE PLAYERS AND PITCHERS OF THE YEAR

Since 2000, the Pirates have been honoring a minor league player and pitcher with a yearly award. They are recognized for their achievement during a September pregame ceremony at PNC Park in Pittsburgh and a plaque hangs on the wall in the Woody Huyke clubhouse in Bradenton showing each winner.

YEAR	PITCHER OF THE YEAR	PLAYER OF THE YEAR
2000	Wilson Guzman	J.R. House
2001	Sean Burnett	Humberto Cota
2002	Sean Burnett	Walter Young
2003	Ian Snell	Chris Shelton
2004	Zach Duke	Brad Eldred
2005	Paul Maholm	Jose Bautista

DID YOU KNOW... That Paul Maholm tossed 8.0 innings of shutout ball in his major league debut on 8/30/05 at Milwaukee...the last Bucco pitcher to throw a shutout in his major league debut was Erv Kantlehner on April 17, 1914. Two other Pirates also accomplished the feat; Nick Maddux on September 13, 1907 and Lefty Leifield on September 3, 1905.

INSIDE-THE-PARK HOME RUNS

In the five-year history of PNC Park, there has been just one inside-the-park home run. Jack Wilson accomplished the feat on July 2, 2004 vs. Milwaukee (game one), the first by a Pittsburgh player since Brian Giles hit one on May 21, 2002 @Wrigley Field in the first game of a doubleheader.

Turner Ward's against the Braves on July 2, 1998 was just the fourth pinch-hit, inside-the-park-homer in franchise history and the first since Adam Comorosky did so against the Philadelphia Phillies on July 16, 1931. With his home run on July 1, 1916, Honus Wagner remains the oldest player ever to hit an inside-the-park home run at the ripe old age of 42 years and four months.

HISTORY

Now in their 120th National League season, the Pittsburgh Pirates own a history filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenies brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenies were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenies reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimmick's application for membership was accepted.

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenies defeated the defending league-champion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park. The victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenies' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League – the Players League. They staggered to a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent.

When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs they played for in 1889. But in 1891 Pittsburgh signed Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the Players League who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. The A's and their American Association brethren immediately accused Pittsburgh of "pirating" Bierbauer away from them. Pittsburgh kept the player and the nickname and became known as the Pirates thereafter.

The fortunes of the Pirates turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams. As part of the move, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates. In the largest player transaction in Pirate history, Dreyfuss brought 14 players with him from the Louisville roster, including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell – plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the league's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World championship in 1909.

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. One of the pioneers of the game, Dreyfuss is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he challenged Henry Killilea, the owner of the American League champion Boston Pilgrims, to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903, Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however, later emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a three-games-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition, five games to three.

The Pirates finished as runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers – Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the league's batting champions – Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, who was 12-3 during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero for the Pirates.

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and deciding game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who managed the club until 1915.

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field on June 30th that year. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition Park – which was located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium – their home. Described as the "Hialeah of Ballparks" when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments.

Pittsburgh sank to the league's second division for most of the next decade, but by the early 1920's – with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey – Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three straight third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates won the N.L. title by eight and a half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925.

The Series matched Pittsburgh against the Washington Senators, who jumped out to a three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, bounced back to win the final three games and the Series. Their miraculous comeback included a 15-hit pounding of Hall of Famer Walter "Big Train" Johnson in Game Seven.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336. A year later, his brother Lloyd joined him and belted out 223 hits for a club rookie record .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul, who was nicknamed "Big Poison" – batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three batting titles and collected 200 or more hits in eight different seasons. He was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a .333 career batting average. Lloyd – who was tagged "Little Poison" – hit .300 or better in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were elected to the Hall of Fame.

The 1927 World Series featured the Pirates against New York's famed "Murderer's Row" with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig who swept Pittsburgh in four straight games. The next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner, although they were not denied their share of great players and great moments.

The Waners were consistently among baseball's premier hitters during the 1930's with Paul amassing more hits (1,959) during the decade than any player in baseball. Traynor was one of the era's best all-around players and is generally regarded as one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game. Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped the .300-mark in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-1941) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any National League performer. He, too, is enshrined at Cooperstown.

Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of the seven seasons that he wore a Pirates uniform (1946-52) – which is a streak that has never been matched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games between May 19th and May 28th (that mark was matched by Don Mattingly in 1987 and Ken Griffey Jr. in 1993). Three years later, Harvey Haddix hurled what many consider the greatest game ever pitched when he retired 36 straight Milwaukee Braves hitters over 12 innings on May 26, 1959. The same year, ElRoy Face won 17 straight games in relief.

Though the Pirates failed to finish higher than seventh from 1950 through 1957, the foundation for another championship was being put into place. Standout players were added throughout the decade, including 2001 Hall-of-Fame inductee Bill

Mazeroski, Dick Groat, Vernon Law, Bob Friend, Bill Virdon, Face and Hall-of-Fame right fielder Roberto Clemente.

In 1956, Pirate owner John Galbreath hired Joe L. Brown as general manager. With the club languishing in last place at 36-67 midway through the 1957 campaign, Brown promoted coach Danny Murtaugh to field manager. Within three seasons, the Bucs were again champions of the National League and again matched against the powerful New York Yankees in the World Series. This time the Bronx Bombers featured Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever on record. The Yankees won Game Two, Game Three and Game Six by a combined score of 38-3, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field. Pittsburgh took a 9-7 lead into the ninth – thanks to Hal Smith's three-run homer in the eighth – but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the game. The game and the Series ended, however, in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off Ralph Terry. Mazeroski was the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run until Joe Carter of Toronto accomplished the feat in Game Six of the 1993 fall classic.

During the 1960's, Clemente established himself among the game's elite players. He collected more hits (1,877) than anyone during the decade and would go on to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1972. During his marvelous career, he topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was named the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1966.

During the 1970's, the Pirates were again among baseball's premier teams. In that 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as third only once. In the first 25 years of divisional play, the Bucs won more games (2,100) and finished first more often (nine times) than any other N.L. East club. The Pirates put together a 2,100-1,878 record during that period (.528 winning %).

The Pirates captured two more World Championships during the 1970's. Their 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente, who batted .414 and received the Series MVP award. In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles in seven games. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors – as he did during the regular season – with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game Seven) and seven RBI. It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was the leading home-run hitter of the 1970's (296). While the Pirates brought two world championships back to Pittsburgh during the 1970s, the Pittsburgh Steelers also came to prominence. The Steelers won four Super Bowls during the 70s, which, coupled with the Pirates success, helped garner Pittsburgh the "City of Champions" label.

On October 2, 1985, the Galbreath family and Warner Communications sold the club to Pittsburgh Associates; a group of private investors who were committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh Associates was made up of 10 investors representing six corporations, three individuals and Carnegie Mellon University. The group included the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, USX Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Company, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell and Harvey M. Walken.

After several lean years in the mid-eighties, the Pirates returned to contention in 1988 when they finished in second place and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark.

With players like Barry Bonds, Doug Drabek, Bobby Bonilla and Andy Van Slyke, Pittsburgh started the decade of the 1990's in fine fashion, winning the N.L. East title three straight years. The Bucs became the first team to win three straight division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Bonds captured MVP honors in 1990 and 1992, while Drabek won the Cy Young award in '90. Manager Jim Leyland took home N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors in both 1990 and 1992. In his 11 seasons at the helm, Leyland won 849 games, placing him third on the club's All-Time Managerial win list.

Pittsburgh was on the brink of a World Series berth in both the 1991 and 1992 season, but the Pirates lost the seventh and deciding game each year to the Atlanta Braves. In 1992, Pittsburgh came within three outs of the Fall Classic. But in the bottom of the ninth inning at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, the Braves triumphed with three runs and won the game 3-2 and the series, four-games-to-three.

The people of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Tri-State area responded well to the club's success in the nineties as the Pirates drew in excess of two million fans in both 1990 and 1991. A crowd of 59,568, the largest ever to watch a professional game in Pittsburgh, witnessed the 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game, played at Three Rivers Stadium on July 12, 1994. In one of the most thrilling All-Star Games ever to be played, the National League prevailed over the American League in extra frames. Fred McGriff helped send the game into extra innings when he delivered a two-run, pinch-hit home run off Lee Smith in the bottom of the ninth inning that tied the score. After the American League failed to score in the top of the 10th inning, the National League broke it's six-game losing streak when Tony Gwynn scored on a double by Moises Alou.

A new chapter of Pirate history began on February 14, 1996, when Kevin McClatchy and his group of investors purchased the storied franchise from Pittsburgh Asssociates.

Picked by many publications to finish last in 1997, the Pirates remained in the division race until the final weekend of the season and the club was named USA Today's "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season. Major League Baseball also underwent a change in 1997 with the birth of Interleage play. That season, the Pirates welcomed the Kansas City Royals to Three Rivers Stadium on June 13 for the club's first interleague matchup, which Pittsburgh won by a score of 4-1. While the Bucs contended for the division during the entire season, one of the most memorable moments of the season came on July 12, 1997. That night, pitchers Francisco Cordova and Ricardo Rincon thrilled Pirates fans with the only combined, extra-inning no-hitter in major league history. The game ended in the bottom of the tenth inning when Mark Smith delivered a three-run home run for the 3-0 win.

The 2000 season brought an end to a full century of great moments, a 100-year period which began with three straight National League pennants and ended with an aura of hope and dreams of more championships to come. With a new home on the horizon, the Bucs said goodbye to Three Rivers Stadium with their final game ever played there on October 1, 2000. Three no-hitters, Clemente's 3000th hit, two All-Star Games, countless playoff games, two World Championships and endless summer evenings can be associated with no other place in the history of Pittsburgh than Three Rivers Stadium.

HISTORY

The Pirates closed out their 30-year tenure at Three Rivers Stadium with a 10-9 loss to the Chicago Cubs in the final game of what was the club's home since 1970. Pittsburgh native John Wehner smacked the final home run in the history of the ballpark off Chicago's Jon Lieber. Ironically, Wehner also grounded out to third base for the final out ever at Three Rivers. With the loss, Pittsburgh closed out Three Rivers Stadium with a record of 1,324 wins and 1,082 losses.

In the early morning of February 11, 2001, Pittsburgh bid farewell to Three Rivers when the home of the Pirates and Steelers was imploded.

McClatchy's vision of a new baseball-only ballpark became a reality when PNC Park officially opened its gates on April 9, 2001. Regarded by many as the best ballpark ever built, PNC Park is an intimate two-level structure which offers all fans dramatic views of the downtown skyline as well as the natural grass playing surface. After touring all 30 major league ballparks during the summer of 2003, ESPN.com ranked PNC Park as the best in baseball.

The anticipation and joy of a new ballpark turned to sorrow, when on the morning of the first regular season game at PNC Park, a beloved member of the Pirates family was lost when Willie Stargell passed away on April 9, 2001.

Despite suffering 100 losses for just the seventh time in club history in 2001, fans came out in record numbers as the Bucs played in front of 19 sellouts and a total of 2,436,139 customers during the inaugural season at PNC Park.

During the 2001 campaign, the Pirates hired Dave Littlefield as the club's 11th general manager in the team's history. Following the 2001 season, Littlefield's acquisitions and free agent signings enabled the Pirates to be one of just six major league teams to improve by 10 games in the standings from the 2001 season.

On June 25, 2002, the Pirates registered the 9,000th win in the history of the franchise with a 4-1 victory over the Montreal Expos, thus becoming just the fourth club to produce 9,000 wins.

The Pirates have had a long list of sluggers in their history and Brian Giles added his name to that list during his five seasons in a Bucco uniform. He hit 30 or more home runs in each of his first four seasons with the club, just one of three Pirates to hit 30 or more long balls in four consecutive years (also Hall-of-Famers Ralph Kiner and Willie Stargell). His 165 home runs with Pittsburgh rank sixth in club history.

Catcher Jason Kendall spent each of his first nine big-league seasons in a Pittsburgh uniform after being selected in the first round of the 1992 June draft. In that time, he made 1,205 appearances behind the plate. That figure ranks first all-time in the annals of the club, 50 games ahead of George Gibson, who caught for the Bucs from 1906 thru 1915. Kendall surpassed Gibson's 90-year-old record in Los Angeles on August 3, 2004.

Entering the 2006 season, the Pirates hired a new manager (Jim Tracy) and coaching staff. The club also locked up their first-ever Rookie-of-the-Year award winner and 2005 N.L. All-Star, outfielder Jason Bay, with a contract thru the 2009 campaign. In addition, the club also has a solid, young pitching staff anchored by lefties Zach Duke and Oliver Perez.

Also in 2006, the Major League Baseball All-Star Game will be played at PNC Park, marking the fifth time the city of Pittsburgh has hosted the event. The Pirates become the first team in baseball history to host the Midsummer Classic in three different venues.

1900: The jersey of this period was short-sleeved with no trim except for a dark blue collar. Stockings were dark blue with red stripes and the cap was blue with a white "P". A "PBC" monogram signifying Pittsburgh Baseball Club was also added to the left sleeve later in the decade.

1910: The regular collar was replaced by the short, stand-up "cadet" style with a button collar. Pinstriped material was also introduced. As the team nickname became more accepted, "Pirates" was displayed in capital letters down the button lapel. The cadet-style collar soon gave way to a tapered collar extension, but the button lapel remained solid dark blue with white buttons and a "P-P" straddling the top button.
Later in this decade, the cap had piping and also included a "P" in white or red.

1920: Standard white uniforms were worn at home and gray on the road with simple graphics and solid colors. The 1925 & '27 championship teams wore the standard capital "P" on its sleeves but not on the jersey.

1930: The Pirate uniforms brightened up considerably with added colors, trim features and graphics. The name "Pirates" was placed across the jersey in an arc of fancy red and blue capital letters. Solid blue belts were included and piping trim on the uniforms included blue and red. A red "P" was also placed on the solid blue cap.

1937: The name "Pirates" appeared on the jersey in script lettering with underline flourish.

1939: A zipper front replaced the button-down jersey.

1941: The uniform abandons the traditional "P" or "Pirates" for an emblem of an actual buccaneer. The patch was placed on the left breast of both the home and road jerseys. This was the first time an emblem of the team's nickname was ever worn on a game jersey.

1948: The team replaced the traditional blue and red with the present day black and gold. The script "Pirates" and "Pittsburgh" was replaced with the block lettering that you still see today. The cap became solid black with a gold "P".

1953: The word "Pittsburgh" is removed from the road jersey, and replaced with "Pirates".

1957: The Pirates became the second team to begin wearing sleeveless jerseys.

1962: Numbers were introduced on the front of the home and road jerseys and have been there ever since.

1970: The Pirates became the first major league club to adopt the new double-knit fabric uniforms. The jersey became a pullover with no button or zipper. The pants contained a built-in sash belt. The cap crown was mustard yellow with a black bill. Within two years, nearly every other club was wearing a double-knit uniform.

1976: The Pirates, as well as other clubs, commemorate the National League's centennial by wearing the old striped, pill-box style caps. The Bucs wore yellow caps with a black bill and black stripes.

1977-1979: Abandoned were the traditional white and gray uniforms in exchange for combinations of white, gold, black and pinstriping. The caps became black with yellow stripes. Players' last names appear on the back of the jerseys for the first time.

1985: The Pirates returned to the basic white and gray uniform.

1987: The Pirates replaced the striped cap in favor of the traditional standard black round crown type.

1990: A script "Pittsburgh" is added to the gray road uniform for the first time since 1952.

1991: The Pirates return to button-down jerseys and belted pants.

1995: Going back to a more traditional look, the Pirates removed the names from the back of the jerseys.

1996: That change lasted only one year, as the Pirates return the names to the back of the jerseys.

1997: The organization introduce a complete new look by introducing an alternate home jersey as well as bringing the color "red" back into the uniform for the first time since 1946.

2001: With the opening of PNC Park, the club enters a "New Era of Baseball." The team re-introduces the sleeveless jersey as part of both the home and road uniform. The Pirates also become the first team ever to wear a cap with a red underbill (cap worn with the alternate home jersey only).

2005: The Pirates re-introduce pinstripes to the uniform. The alternate uniforms are worn on Sunday home games.

BOLD FACE CAPS - Living

In the 119 seasons in the National League, 1609 players have worn the uniform of the Pittsburgh Pirates. As of February 3, 2006, 692 are living.

DID YOU KNOW... The oldest living Pirates are Howard (Howdy) Groskloss, who turns 99 on April 9 and Ray Berres, who turns 98 on August 31. Groskloss, who was born in Pittsburgh in 1907, played three seasons for the Bucs (1930-32) and batted a combined .261 with 21 RBI in 72 games. He played second base and shortstop during his brief career. Berres made his debut with Brooklyn in 1934 and spent four seasons with the Pirates (1937-40). The catcher went on to play for the Boston Braves and New York Giants before retiring after the 1945 campaign.

BILLY MEYER

1948-1952

Born January 14, 1892 in Knoxville, TN, died March 31, 1957 in Knoxville. Threw and batted righthanded. A catcher with the White Sox and Athletics (1913, 1916-17), Meyer won eight pennants as a manager of minor league clubs from 1926 through 1947 before becoming Pirate manager in 1948. Known for his rapport with players, fans and the press, Meyer managed in Pittsburgh for five seasons, compiling a record of 317-452. He was The Sporting News Manager of the Year in 1948 when the Bucs compiled a record of 83-71. Following his five-year tenure as Pirate manager, Meyer was a Pittsburgh scout for three years. Number retired in 1954.

RALPH KINER

1946-1953

Born Oct. 27, 1922 in Santa Rita, NM. Threw and batted righthanded. A Hall of Famer (inducted in 1975), Kiner ranks second on club's all-time home run list (301). Won or shared N.L. home run title in each of his seven full seasons with Pittsburgh (1946-52), a streak unmatched in either league. Hit a club-record 54 homers in 1949 and had a club-record .567 slugging pct. in Pirate career. Was the key player in 10-man deal with the Cubs on June 4, 1953. Played with Cubs (1953-54) and Cleveland (1955) before back ailment ended his career prematurely. Hit 369 home runs in 10-year career, averaging 7.1 per 100 at-bats, which ranks among the best in major league history. Number retired in 1987.

8

WILLIE STARGELL

1962-1982

Born March 6, 1941 in Earlsboro, OK, died April 9, 2001 in Wilmington, NC. Threw and batted lefthanded. "Pops" compiled a remarkable career in a 21-year span from 1962 through 1982 with the Pirates. In 2,360 games he batted .282 with 475 home runs, seven home runs in post-season play, and 1,540 RBI. The Bucs' all-time home run, RBI and extra base hits king, Willie also ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles and total bases. Willie was a seven-time All-Star pick. In 1979 he was the N.L.'s co-MVP and the MVP in the LCS and World Series. Stargell became the 17th player elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility (inducted in 1988). Number retired in 1982.

9

BILL MAZEROSKI

1956-1972

Born Sept. 5, 1936 in Wheeling, WV. Threw and batted righthanded. His well-chronicled home run against the Yankees gave Pittsburgh the 1960 World Championship. During his 17-year career with Pittsburgh (1956-72), the Hall-ofFamer won eight Gold Glove awards and earned a reputation as one of the finest fielding second basemen in the history of the game. Among the major league records for second basemen "Maz" holds are: most seasons leading league in assists (nine), most seasons leading league in double plays (eight), most double plays in a single season (161 in 1966) and most career double plays (1,706). A seven-time N.L. All-Star, he compiled a .260 lifetime average with 138 home runs and 853 runs batted in. Number retired in 1987.

PIE TRAYNOR

1920-35, 37

Born November 11, 1899 in Framingham, MA, died March 16, 1972 in Pittsburgh. Threw and batted righthanded. Harold (Pie) Traynor was one of the finest third basemen in major league history, earning that reputation in a 17-year playing career spent entirely with the Pirates (1920-1935, 37). Regarded as an outstanding defensive player, Traynor was also adept with the bat, compiling a lifetime .320 average. While he hit just 58 home runs, he managed to drive in 1,273 runs. Pie ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at bats, runs, hits, singles, doubles, triples, total bases, RBI, extra-base hits, batting average and stolen bases. The Hall of Famer (inducted in 1948) also managed the Pirates from 1934 through 1939. Number retired in 1972.

21

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

1955-1972

Born August 18, 1934 in Carolina, P.R., died December 31, 1972 in San Juan, P.R. Threw and batted righthanded. A Hall of Famer (inducted in 1973), Roberto Clemente was selected by the Pirates in the player draft when the Brooklyn Dodgers left him unprotected after the 1954 season, his first as a professional. For the next 18 years Clemente starred in the Pirate outfield. He won four N.L. batting crowns and batted .317 in his career, with 240 home runs and 1,305 RBI. He also won 12 Gold Glove Awards. He hit safely in all seven games in both the 1960 and 1971 World Series, winning the Series MVP Award in 1971 when he batted .414 with two homers and two doubles against Baltimore. Clemente was a 12-time All-Star and the N.L. MVP in 1966. He ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in 12 offensive categories. He died with four others when a plane carrying supplies to earthquake-stricken Nicaragua crashed. Number retired in 1973.

33

HONUS WAGNER

1900-1917

Born February 24, 1874 in Carnegie, PA, died December 6, 1955 in Carnegie. Threw and batted right handed. One of five players originally elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1936. Honus Wagner is widely regarded as the best shortstop to ever play the game. "The Flying Dutchman" won eight N.L. batting crowns - second only to Ty Cobb's 12 titles - during a 17-year stretch in which he batted over .300 in each season. Wagner came to Pittsburgh in 1900 after three seasons with Louisville, a franchise that had disbanded. He played with the Bucs until 1917 and ended his career with a .329 average and 101 homers. Wagner was a coach with the Pirates between 1933 and 1951. He ranks among the Pirates' top 10 in 11 offensive categories. Number retired in 1952.

DANNY MURTAUGH

1957-1976

Born, October 8, 1917 in Chester, PA, died December 2, 1976 in Chester. Threw and batted right handed. A second baseman with the Phillies, Braves and Pirates (1941-43, 46-51), Danny Murtaugh was one of the most successful managers in Pirates history. He managed the Bucs in four different stints during 15 seasons between 1957 and 1976. During that time he became one of only 36 managers to win 1,000 games, compiling a record of 1,115-950, his win total ranking second on the Pirates all-time list to Fred Clarke's 1,422. He led the Pirates to four Eastern Division crowns and two World Series Championships (1960 and 1971). He was named The Sporting News Manager of the Year in 1960 and 1970. Number retired in 1977.

40

JACKIE ROBINSON

1947-1956

Born January 31, 1919 in Cairo, GA, died October 24, 1972 in Stamford, CT. Threw and batted righthanded. Known forever as the first black player in the major leagues, Jack Roosevelt Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956, helping them to six pennants in a 10-year span and to their only World Championship in 1955. He was named the N.L. Rookie of the Year in 1947 and the league's MVP in 1949. A six-time All-Star, Robinson also became the first man to integrate the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962. In 1997, as a tribute to the legacy he created, Major League Baseball retired his number 42 league-wide on the 50th Anniversary of his breaking the game's color barrier. The Pirates officially retired his number in a pre-game ceremony on July 12, 1997.

Scouting Director

ED CREECH

Ed Creech was named Pittsburgh's Director of Scouting on November 20, 2001. Creech and his staff made Ball State University's right-handed pitcher Bryan Bulllington the #1 overall selection in the 2002 June draft, Ed's first draft with the club. Bullington, along with four other of Creech's draft picks (Brad Eldred & Matt Capps from 2002 and Paul Maholm & Tom Gorzelanny from 2003) have made it to the majors with the Pirates.

After five consecutive years of drafting a pitcher with their first selection, Creech went local with the club's 2004 first-round pick, drafting and eventually signing 18-year-old catcher Neil Walker. Walker, who graduated from Pine-Richland High School in the northern suburbs of Pittsburgh, was the first catcher taken by the Pirates in the first round since Jason Kendall in 1992.

Creech spent three seasons (1999-2001) as an assistant to Kevin Malone, who was the Los Angeles Dodgers' General Manager, before joining the Pirates in his current capacity. With Los Angeles, he was responsible for overseeing all amateur scouting and was in charge of the Dodgers strategy and selections in the annual June draft.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Creech spent the 1998 campaign as the Director of Scouting for the St. Louis Cardinals. In that role, he was responsible for selecting outfielder J.D. Drew with the fifth overall selection in the 1998 June draft. Ed was also the Scouting Director for the Montreal Expos (1994-97) and had been part of that organization since '73, when the Expos selected him in the 2nd round of the draft.

Creech played six seasons in the Montreal farm system, advancing as high as the Triple-A level. He retired as a player after the 1978 season and was out of baseball until returning as a coach with Calgary (Expos' Rookie) in 1982. Creech also managed in the minors for five years (1983-85, 1990-91) and was an area scout from 1985-1991. He served as the East Coast scouting supervisor for the Expos from 1991-93 before assuming the duties of Scouting Director in February of 1994.

Ed was born on 10/30/51 in Columbia, SC. He received his bachelor's degree in mathematics from Mercer University in Macon, GA. Creech resides in Moultrie, GA, with his wife Mary Ann and his children; daughter Kacey (17) and sons Matthew (12) and Nathaniel (5).

Director of Player Development

BRIAN GRAHAM

The 2006 season marks Brian Graham's 25th year in professional baseball and his fifth season as the Pirates Director of Player Development. He joined the club on December 3, 2001. As Director, Brian oversees all aspects of the Pirates Player Development system, which includes the coordination of instruction, the signing of free agents, staffing, budgets, player movement, affiliate relationships and the Latin American field operations. In addition, he installed and implemented a system of Individual Player Plans which provides instruction and resources to insure the individual development of Pirates prospects in the mental, physical and fundamental aspects of baseball.

During the 2005 season, Pirates minor league teams finished with a combined record of 372-337 (.525), posting an overall winning percentage for the fourth consecutive year. In that four-year time frame, the Pirates minor league system has recorded the second-best winning percentage among all 30 major league organizations (1524-1264, .547). With four teams earning playoff berths in 2005 (Indianapolis, Altoona, Lynchburg & Williamsport), Pittsburgh's minor league system has now featured a record 16 playoff teams during the last four seasons.

In 2002, the Pirates were honored as the Topps' Baseball "Organization of the Year." The farm teams combined to finish with a .571 winning percentage (399-300), four teams participated in the post-season and two clubs (Lynchburg and Hickory) won league championships that season.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Brian was a major league coach with the American League Central Division Champion Cleveland Indians for two seasons (1998-1999) and with the Baltimore Orioles in 2000. Graham spent the 2001 season as the Field Coordinator and Director of Instruction for the Florida Marlins.

In nine seasons as a minor league manager in the Cleveland Indians organization, Graham's teams finished above .500 each year, compiling a 704-491 (.589) record. Graham managed eight consecutive playoff teams and was a staff member on 10 straight playoff teams (eight as a manager and two as a big league coach). He was named the Carolina League's Manager-of-the-Year in 1991, the "Best Managerial Prospect" by Eastern League Managers/Baseball America magazine in 1993 and Minor League Manager-of-the-Year by USA Today's Baseball Weekly in 1996. Brian also managed in the Dominican Republic Winter League for Aguilas (1991) and has also coached and managed in the Arizona Fall League (1993-94).

Originally selected by Oakland in the fourth round of the 1982 June draft, the former second baseman played five seasons in the minor leagues with Oakland, Milwaukee, Detroit and Cleveland. He also played baseball and football at UCLA. Brian was a member of the 1978 Fiesta Bowl team and finished his collegiate career as UCLA's all-time leader in hits, stolen bases and runs scored. Graham was elected to UCLA's Baseball Hall-of-Fame in 1996.

Brian was born on 4/9/60 in San Diego, CA. He attended UCLA for four years and received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Behavioral Science from National University in San Diego. Graham resides in Cranberry Township, PA, with his wife Karen and three children; son Jack (13) and daughters Kelsey (12) and Kendall (4).

Field Coordinator

JEFF BANISTER

Jeff Banister is in his fourth season as the Pirates Minor League Field Coordinator after spending the previous four years as the Field Coordinator at the Major League level. The 2006 season marks Banister's 21st with the Pittsburgh organization.

Originally selected by the Pirates in the 25th round of the 1986 June free agent draft, Jeff began his professional playing career with Watertown. He compiled a .247 batting average, 37 home runs and 204 RBI in 515 minor league games. Banister made his major league debut and only big-league appearance with the Pirates on 7/23/91. He owns a career major league batting average of 1.000, having singled off Atlanta's Dan Petry @Three Rivers Stadium in his only big-league at bat. Jeff went on to miss the entire 1992 season due to right elbow surgery. He has battled bone cancer and osteomyelitis, in addition to having seven operations on his left ankle and leg as a teenager in 1980.

Banister served as a player/coach with Carolina (AA) in 1993 before beginning his managerial career with Welland in the New York-Penn League in 1994. He moved on to manage Augusta (A) in 1995 and Lynchburg (A) for 1996 and the first half of the 1997 campaign. His Augusta club captured the 1995 South Atlantic League championship. Jeff replaced Marc Hill at Carolina for the remainder of the 1997 season and spent the entire 1998 campaign at the Mudcats helm. In his five seasons as a minor league manager, Banny has compiled a 299-330 record (.475). He also managed in the Hawaiian Winter League in 1995-96, with his Honolulu club winning the championship. In 2004, Jeff managed Lynchburg for two weeks during a managerial change.

Jeff was born on 1/15/65 in Weatherford, OK. He is a graduate of LaMarque (TX) High School and attended the University of Houston. Banister resides in League City, TX, with his wife Karen and two children; daughter Alexandra (11) and son Jacob (4).

PNC PARK STATUE INFORMATION

HONUS WAGNER

The Honus Wagner statue has had three different "homes" since being dedicated on April 30, 1955. Originally, the Wagner statue was located in Schenley Park, close to the Pirates early home, Forbes Field. It was then moved to Three Rivers Stadium and erected outside Gate C on July 21, 1972.

The statue is now located at the home plate entrance to PNC Park. Honus Wagner's statue was sponsored by the Pittsburgh Professional Baseball Association as a lasting tribute to his character and abilities. Contributions to the statue fund were in amounts ranging from $1,000 to $1.00 and were received from thousands of individuals, organizations and foundations. Names of all contributors were then inscribed on one continuous roll and put in a stainless steel, hermetically-sealed tube before being placed inside the statue.

"No one player has ever brought more honor to the game of baseball than has Honus Wagner," said former Pirates President Bill Benswanger, who served as master of ceremonies at the original statue dedication in 1955.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE

The Roberto Clemente statue was dedicated on July 8, 1994, to kick off All-Star Week in Pittsburgh. It was originally erected outside Gate A at Three Rivers Stadium and is now located outside the Center Field Gate to PNC Park, a few steps away from the Roberto Clemente Bridge.

The base of the statue is black granite and stainless steel with a diamond set in the center. Glass blocks represent first, second and third base. Beneath the glass is soil from Puerto Rico – where Roberto first played the game – Forbes Field and Three Rivers Stadium. The soil is marked as "hallowed ground," a place of transcendence where the past, present and future of baseball meet and to which each individual can bring his or her own memories.

Encircling the diamond and set in the stainless steel is a timeline of Clemente's life. Fifteen inscriptions run counter-clockwise around the diamond, beginning at homeplate and ending somewhere between third base and home. There is space for a 16th inscription, but it remains empty, a reflection of the incomplete circle of Roberto Clemente's life. Susan Wagner sculpted the 12-foot bronze statue of Clemente and L.D. Astorino & Associates, Ltd., served as the architect of the project.

WILLIE STARGELL

On September 29, 2000, the Pirates announced that a statue of Willie Stargell would be unveiled at the club's new home, PNC Park. The announcement was made during the last weekend of Pittsburgh's final games at Three Rivers Stadium.

Stargell, however, did not live to see the day he would be forever immortalized at the statue unveiling on April 7, 2001. After not being able to attend the unveiling ceremony because of an illness, the Hall-of-Famer passed away in the early morning hours of April 9, the same day PNC Park officially opened its doors to begin a new era of Pirates baseball.

The 12-foot bronze statue stands along Federal Street at the entrance to left field at PNC Park. At the base of the statue is a quote from Stargell: "Last night, coming in from the airport, we came through the tunnel and the city opened up its arms and I felt at home." Also throughout the base of the statue are "Stargell stars," which the Pirates all-time home run leader handed out to his teammates towards the conclusion of his 21-year playing career with Pittsburgh.

RALPH KINER

The Pirates unveiled a sculpture of Hall-of-Fame outfielder Ralph Kiner at PNC Park on April 7, 2003, as part of the club's opening day festivities. It is located behind the bleacher seats in left field, along the main level of the ballpark.

Kiner played for the Pirates for just seven seasons (1946-1952), but still ranks second on the club's all-time home run list behind Willie Stargell. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1975 and had his No. 4 jersey retired by the Pirates in 1987. Kiner holds many club records and is still one of only three National League players to ever hit eight home runs in one week.

The club announced it would immortalize the former slugger in March of 2003. Kiner won or shared the National League home run title in each of his seven seasons with Pittsburgh, a streak still unmatched in either league. The hands and bat were sculpted by Susan Wagner, the lady who also designed the Roberto Clemente and Willie Stargell statues.

PNC PARK INFORMATION

JEWEL ON THE NORTH SHORE

Making its debut in the spring of 2001, PNC Park opened to rave reviews and offered fans, media and just about anybody entering through its gates, an awe-inspiring look at the Pittsburgh skyline and the surrounding area. A combination of Forbes Field, Wrigley Field and Camden Yards, PNC Park is considered by many as the greatest ballpark ever built. When he visited Pittsburgh in 2001 as the Chief Operating Officer of Major League Baseball, Paul Beeston proclaimed PNC Park to be "the best-looking baseball stadium he had ever seen". Following the inaugural campaign of 2001, USA Today Baseball Weekly rated PNC Park as "The Best Stadium" in its "Best in Baseball" issue. And in 2003, ESPN.com toured all 30 Major League Baseball parks and proclaimed PNC Park #1 (see box below).

Maintaining the beauty of the playing surface is a year-long process. The installation of the approximate 2.2 acres of Kentucky bluegrass began on October 30, 2000. The warning track, which consists of a ribbon of crushed red lava from Colorado, is placed atop a layer of gravel. The infield dirt is a mixture of clay, sand and peat moss. Whether you're a first-time visitor to PNC Park, or a season-ticket holder, you never know what you'll see inside the jewel on the north shore.

Voice of the Pirates

LANNY FRATTARE

The 2006 season marks Lanny Frattare's 31st as a radio/TV broadcaster with the Pirates. With over 30 years behind the microphone, no other person has brought the action to Bucco fans longer than Lanny.

A native of Rochester, NY, Frattare received his bachelor's degree in communications from Ithaca (NY) College in 1970. He joined the Pirates behind the microphone at the major league level in 1976.

In October of 2006, Lanny will host the 20th annual Family Links Golf Classic. Over the past two decades, Lanny and his friends have raised over $1.6 million in support of over 32,000 children, families and mentally challenged individuals served yearly by the Family Links staff.

Frattare's wife, Christine, is a music teacher in the Upper St. Clair school district and serves as the Music Director of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Upper St. Clair. She is also the conductor of the Junior Mendelssohn Choir of Pittsburgh.

Lanny has two children; son David (31) and daughter Megan (24). David currently works in the Attorney General's office of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. David and his wife, Ann Marie, are the proud parents of two children; son Spencer (4) and daughter Carly (2). Megan is currently residing in Philadelphia.

Play-by-Play Announcer

GREG BROWN

Greg Brown is in his 13th season as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the Pirates, one of only six with at least 13 years of service behind the mic for the Bucs on radio.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh's broadcast team, he spent five seasons (1989-1993) doing play-by-play and color commentary for the Buffalo Bisons of the American Association as well as hosting a sportstalk show on WGR Radio. Brown also worked as a color analyst and a pre- and post-game show host for the Buffalo Bills of the National Football League for three seasons (1991-93).

Greg's association with the Pirates actually began in 1979, when he interned in the Promotions department while attending Point Park College. Following the World Series that year, Brown worked as the clubhouse manager during the Instructional League program in Bradenton, Florida. His 10-year stint in the Bucs front office included work in the Sales, Public Relations and Broadcasting departments. Greg also served as the team's public address announcer during the 1987 campaign. In 1988, he was a sports anchor on WFMJ-TV in Youngstown, OH.

Brown is a native of Washington, D.C. He currently resides in Leet Township with his wife Kim and son Ryan (7).

PIRATE RADIO BROADCAST TEAMS

In 1936, KDKA-Radio hired Rosey Rowswell as the Pirates' first full-time announcer. He worked alone for awhile, then was joined by Jack Craddock and Bob Prince. The following is a chronology of the Pirate radio broadcast teams over the years. Most of the years have been with KDKA (continuous since 1955) but WWSW was also the Pirates' flagship station at one time.

BOB WALK

After spending 14 seasons in a major league uniform, Bob Walk joined the Pirates broadcast crew in 1994. The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 of those 14 years with Pittsburgh (1984-1993). He compiled a 105-81 lifetime record, which included an 82-61 mark with the Pirates.

Walk's professional career began with Spartanburg in 1977 after he was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 3rd round of the 1976 June draft. He made his big-league debut with the Phillies in 1980 and was the starting pitcher in Game One of the World Series that October against Kansas City.

In the spring of 1981, Walk was dealt to the Atlanta Braves for outfielder Gary Matthews. He spent three seasons in the Atlanta organization before being acquired by Pittsburgh in 1984.

Bob was a 1988 National League All-Star and he posted six straight winning seasons from 1987 to 1992. One of his finest moments in a Pirates uniform came in 1992 when he pitched a 7-1, complete-game victory over the Atlanta Braves in Game Five of the National League Championship Series.

Walk, a native of Newhall, CA, resides in Wexford with his wife Lorrie. They have three sons; Tommy (26), Johnny (23) and Ronny (16). Tommy and his wife, Dominique, are the proud parents of daughter Makayla (3).

Color Analyst
STEVE BLASS

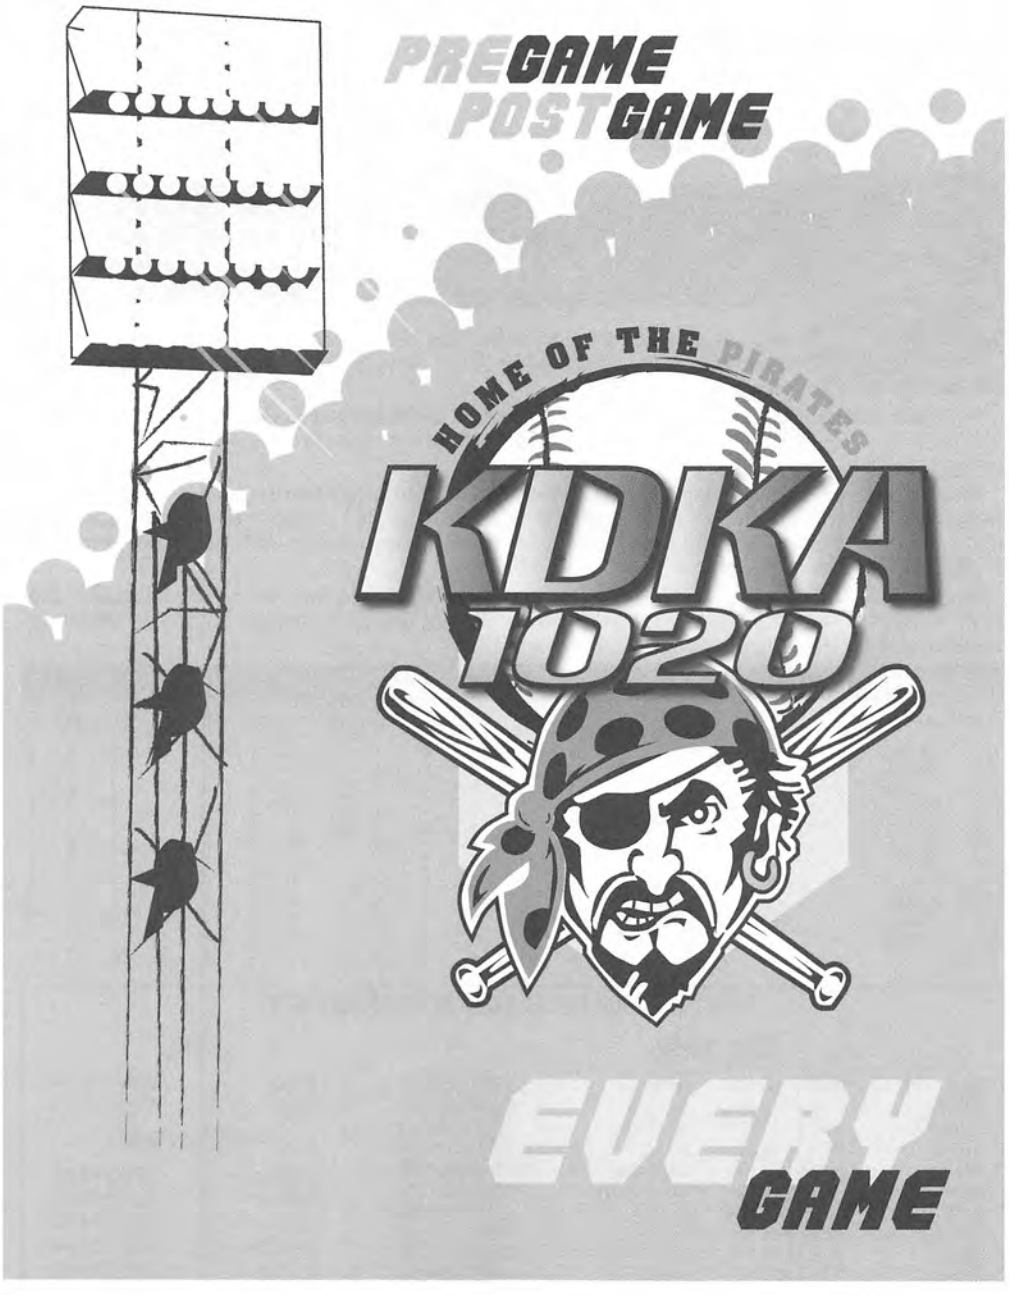

The 2006 season marks Steve Blass' 46th year of involvement with the Pirates, having been associated with the club since signing his first professional contract on June 27, 1960. The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 seasons (1964-1974) with the Pirates, compiling a record of 103-76 in 282 games. He ranks seventh on the club's all-time list in strikeouts (896) and 14th in wins.

For the second straight season, Steve will work only those games played at PNC Park in Pittsburgh. He will continue in his role as an analyst on both radio and TV.

A member of the 1972 National League All-Star team, Blass won 78 games during a five-year period from 1968 thru 1972. He was a Pirates hero in the 1971 World Series against Baltimore when he picked up complete-game victories in Game Three and Game Seven. On the mound for the final out in 1971, Steve went 2-0 with a 1.00 ERA in the '71 World Series (18.0ip/2er).

After retiring following the 1974 season, Blass remained in the Pittsburgh area and worked in private business, while continuing to do community service for the ballclub. In 1983, he worked with the legendary Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts and was also retained the following year when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment. Blass joined the Pittsburgh Pirates radio broadcast crew in 1986.

A native of Canaan, CT, Steve and his wife Karen live in Upper St. Clair. They have two sons, David and Christopher, and five grandchildren. In 2002, Steve became the 13th recipient of the "Pride of the Pirates" award, a yearly honor (since 1990) which recognizes a member of the Pirates family who has demonstrated the qualities of sportsmanship, dedication and outstanding character during a lifetime of service.

Color Analyst

JOHN WEHNER

Pittsburgh native John Wehner joined the Pirates broadcast team prior to the 2005 season. He served as analyst on both radio and TV, working all road games and a handful of games played at PNC Park in Pittsburgh.

Entering the 2006 campaign, John has spent a total of 15 seasons in the Pittsburgh organization (1988-1996, 1999-2001 and 2003-2005). Prior to being named to the broadcast team, John spent time as a coach with the Altoona Curve (2002-2004) after serving the Pirates as a special instructor during spring training in 2002.

He saw his last action in the major leagues with the Pirates in 2001. He hit the last home run in the history of Three Rivers Stadium on October 1, 2000 off Chicago's Jon Lieber and also made the final out. In 11 seasons in the major leagues, John compiled a .249 batting average, hit four home runs and collected 54 RBI in 461 games. In addition, he shares the major league record of playing 99 consecutive errorless games at third base (also Jeff Cirillo).

Wehner is a graduate of Pittsburgh's Carrick High School and attended the University of Indiana, where he played baseball for three years. He resides in Cranberry Township, PA, with his wife Wendy. The couple has four children; sons Tyler (14) and Brandon (12) and daughters Hailey (7) and Hannah (3).

Director of Media Relations

JIM TRDINICH

The 2006 season marks Trdinich's 20th with the Pirates and his 22nd in Major League Baseball. He is in his 15th year as the club's Director of Media Relations, having been named to his current position in March of 1992 after serving as Assistant Director of Media Relations for three seasons. Trdinich oversees the club's media relations efforts, which include the annual media guide, press conferences, daily game notes, press credentials and all interview requests for uniformed personnel, both locally and on the national level.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Jim served under President A. Bartlett Giamatti in the National League office of Major League Baseball in New York, assisting the Director of Media Relations and the Manager of Waiver & Player Records in 1987 and 1988. His association with the Pirates actually began in 1985 when he served as an intern with the Public Relations department.

During the summer of 1986, Trdinich replaced the legendary "Radio Rich" in the press box and was responsible for the production and distribution of the type-written play-by-play account of each home game.

Trdinich continues to act as an associate editor for the club's seasonal monthly magazine. From 1990-92, he served as editor of the team's annual yearbook and game day publications. In addition to serving as one of the host clubs for the League Championship Series for three seasons (1990-92), Jim has also assisted the National League during the League Championship Series in 1987-89 and during the 1998 Division Series in Chicago.

In 2006, Trdinich will serve as the media relations contact for the Major League Baseball All-Star Game, the second time he has done so (also 1994). In addition, he has assisted MLB at five other Midsummer Classics.

PERSONAL: James John Trdinich...Born on 7/21/64 in Allison Park, PA...Resides in Franklin Park, PA, with wife Michelle and son Zach (5)...Is a 1982 graduate of Hampton High School...Earned a degree in Communications from Slippery Rock University in 1986...Served on the Dapper Dan Dinner Committee for two years (2003 & 2004).

Manager of Media Services

DAN HART

Dan Hart is in his seventh season as a member of the Pirates Media Relations staff, having joined the club in November of 1999.

In his current role, Dan assists the director in every aspect of the department, including the annual media guide, press conferences, spring training and team travel. He oversees the production and distribution of the season media credentials as well serving as the main contact for individual daily passes for local and national media throughout the year.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Hart was the sports information director at Point Park College where he produced media guides for each of the six team sports. In addition, he served as the radio voice for the college's mens and womens basketball programs from 1994-1997.

In 1992, Dan worked as a freelance sports reporter for the North Hills News Record, where he covered all high school sports in the North Hills area. He was also a media relations intern with the Pittsburgh Penguins in 1996-97 and with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1997.

During his time with the Pirates, Hart has assisted the Major League Baseball public relations staff at each of the last four N.L. Championship Series, producing daily pre- and post-game notes.

PERSONAL: Daniel Dean Hart...Born on 9/12/73 in Rochester, PA...Resides in Economy, PA, with wife Erin...Is a 1992 graduate of Seneca Valley High School in Harmony, PA...Earned a bachelor's degree in Journalism and Communications from Point Park College in 1997 and a master's degree in 1999.

MEDIA POLICIES

WELCOME: On behalf of the Pittsburgh Pirates organization, we would like to welcome you to the sixth season of baseball at PNC Park. With the Major League Baseball All-Star Game being held at PNC Park in July, the 2006 season promises to be a very exciting year in the city of Pittsburgh. Any violation of the following guidelines, or the rules and regulations set forth by Major League Baseball, may result in immediate revocation of your credential and bar future access to PNC Park. If you have any questions or requests, please don't hesitate to ask our staff and we will make every attempt to accommodate you. We look forward to working with you once again throughout the 2006 season.

THE PIRATES MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICE: Located on the fourth floor of the team's administrative building on the corner of General Robinson Street and Federal Street. All persons wishing to visit the media relations office must sign in with the 24-hour security guard on the street level of the building.

MEDIA ENTRANCE TO PNC PARK: All members of the media must enter the ballpark at the "Press Tower" - the tallest of the two towers located on General Robinson Street, adjacent to the Home Plate entrance to the park (left-field line). YOU MUST HAVE A PHOTO ID TO GAIN ACCESS TO THE BALLPARK.

PRESS BOX/BROADCAST BOOTHS: All broadcast booths are located on the press box level. Access to the press box is available only by the "Press Tower" elevator. Only accredited members of the media and credentialed personnel will be permitted in the press box. The press box is an active working area. Cheering and loud conversation will not be tolerated at any time. The Pittsburgh Pirates prohibit any person under the age of 18 to enter the press box level on game days (unless authorized or accompanied by a representative of the Media Relations department). Anyone violating these policies will be asked to leave the premises. No cameras (still or video) are allowed in the press box unless authorized by Media Relations.

PARKING: Media parking is very limited. Daily requests will be handled on a first-come, first-served basis. Season parking passes will be distributed along with season credentials in March (if applicable). Those media members receiving a 2006 season parking pass will parking in the same lot as the last two years (LOT 7G).

INTERVIEW ROOM: Located along the Service Tunnel between the home and visiting clubhouses. The room will be used for media conferences and other special events and interviews. The manager of the home team will conduct his post-game interview in this room following each game at PNC Park.

PRESS LOUNGE: Located along the Service Tunnel between the home and visiting clubhouses. The lounge is open to credentialed members of the media and front office staff 2 hours prior to the game. The lounge will close approximately 1 hour after the start of the game. A full meal is served to all media for $7. Soft drinks and snacks will be available during games on the press level.

WIRELESS ACCESS: The press box at PNC Park is expected to contain wirless internet access in 2006.

PHONES FOR MEDIA: The Pirates will supply 10 Charge Call phones in the working press box. Please let a media relations representive know if you wish to have your own dedicated phone line in the press box.

NO SMOKING: Smoking is prohibited in the press box and in the broadcast booths. Those wishing to smoke may do so on the stairwell of the "Press Tower," located outside the press box entrance.

SEASON CREDENTIALS: Season credentials must include a photo of the bearer and will be issued only to those legitimate news-gathering sources who will cover the Pirates every day (past coverage will also be taken into consideration). Only members of the working press will be issued credentials (this does not include freelance writers). No one under 18 years of age will be issued working credentials, unless clearance has been given by the Pirates. Only Pittsburgh Pirate, National League or BBWAA-issued credentials will be honored. Credentials are not transferable and should be visible at all times.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: These will be issued to those who do not qualify for season credentials, including weekly and monthly publications. Daily credentials will also be issued to area radio and television stations when the need arises for extra pre/post-game personnel and daily newspapers making last-minute changes in coverage. We ask that all daily requests be made at least 24 hours in advance of the desired game. All daily credentials must be picked up at the MEDIA ENTRANCE to PNC Park, located along General Robinson Street, adjacent to the Home Plate entrance to the park. All media must show photo identification and observe the rules and regulations set forth by Major League Baseball before gaining access to PNC Park.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Applications for working media credentials should have been made in writing and received no later than Friday, February 24. All requests must come from sports editors, sports directors or photo editors and submitted on official media outlet letterhead. Requests for daily credentials can be faxed to (412) 325-4413 or e-mailed to either member of the Media Relations staff.

MEDIA INFORMATION

ON-LINE SERVICES: Per Major League Baseball guidelines, the Pirates will not issue working credentials to any on-line service, unless they meet each of the following criteria:

1. It is part of a national news gathering agency.
2. It reaches a broad audience.
3. It produces original content.
4. It has an established record of developing original content.
5. It employs full-time journalists.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: Both clubhouses are located along the Service Tunnel. The Pirates clubhouse is on the third base side and the Visitor's clubhouse is on the first base side. The Pittsburgh clubhouse is open to credentialed media from 3 1/2 hours prior to game time until 45 minutes before game time. It re-opens to credentialed media within 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game (unless there is a team meeting). The manager's office may be open briefly between games of a doubleheader only for those with early deadlines. The clubhouse is closed during rain delays. It is also closed while the club is taking batting practice on the field, unless the player needed is in the clubhouse. Access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined solely by the visiting club's policies. In addition, the clubhouse is not a "lounge" for members of the media. We realize that some players are difficult to track down prior to a game, but we ask that you do not just hang out in the clubhouse. If you have specific interview requests for a player or coach, we encourage you to contact a member of the Pirates' Media Relations staff, who will try to accommodate your needs.

Per Major League Baseball, all visitors to the home and visiting clubhouses must sign in before entering.

FIELD ACCESS: The field and dugouts are accessible to credentialed media from the time the press gate opens until the end of the visiting club's batting practice. If the visiting club does not take batting practice, the field is accessible until 45 minutes before game time. At no time is the media permitted in fair territory and all media must stay inside the first and third base bags. Access to the field is available on the Service Level only by one of two tunnels: one leading into the visitor's dugout or one located right outside the home clubhouse, which leads to the area adjacent to the third-base bag and Pirates dugout.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Should the need arise for an autograph request, notify the Media Relations Department. Any violation of these guidelines could result in immediate termination of the credential and future access.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Darkrooms are located along the Service Tunnel behind home plate. Limited photo locations are available at various field level areas, as well as in the TV locations located around the ballpark. All photographers must have credentials and roving is prohibited unless authorized by the Pirates. No freelance photographers will be granted credentials. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products. All still photo locations should be reserved through Dave Arrigo, the Pirates' official team photographer.

RADIO & TV REPORTS: Reports are defined as NON play-by-play reporting by non-rightsholders of scores and game highlights, including scene setters, game in-progress updates and post-game summaries.

- Reports must be limited to 60 seconds in length and no more than one report per inning may be filed to each media outlet.
- Radio and television reporters/stringers must notify the Pirates of their plans to do live reports at the time credentials are requested.
- Television reporters may file live reports from the field or an assigned press-level booth up until game time. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or while the game is in progress. Live television reports - to air during regularly scheduled news programming - are permitted during the game only when there is no home telecast. These in-game reports may not show the game in progress.

PIRATES 2006
ALL-STAR GAME

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and/or no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAKS: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

NIGHT GAME: A night game shall be any game with the official starting time occuring after 5:00 p.m. All games, with official starting times fixed for 5:00 p.m., or earlier, shall be "day games."

PLAYER LIMITS: A Major League roster consists of 40 players until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25 players until September 1, when it again becomes 40.

REGULATION GAME: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the first of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

TIE GAME: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the League standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

SAVE RULE: Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;
2) He is not the winning pitcher; and
3) He qualified under one of the following conditions: he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or he enters that game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or no deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces; or he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

BLOWN SAVE DEFINITION: When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a blown save. If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity. If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist, he is not charged with a save opportunity. This method has been a part of the Rolaids formula since 1988.

TRADING REGULATIONS: The trading deadline is July 31. Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 (midnight) without waivers. Waivers are required, however:

1) If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 and ending at 5 pm EDT the day after the end of the season.
2) If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after three years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3) If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring three years of service: At any time during the year.
4) If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7 days in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

WAIVER PERIOD: Major League waivers must be secured for all Major League trades from August 1 until the day after the regular season concludes. NO WAIVERS are required to trade a major league player at any other time.

DISABLED LISTS:

15-Day: The player must remain off the active roster for a minimum of 15 calendar days, starting on the day following the player's last game.

60-Day: Same rules apply, however, this may only be used when the team's 40-man roster is full. Any player placed on the 60-day disabled list after August 1 may not play for the remainder of the season, including any post-season game.

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of hits by the number of at bats.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine and then divide that number by the number of innings pitched.

FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks, hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING AVERAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit-by-pitch, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games, which may include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitch, etc.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest earned run average with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: The fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

(1) A catcher participates as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

(2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.

(3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: if another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

NOTE: These figures DO NOT determine Rawlings Gold Glove winners at the end of the season. Those are selected by a vote of managers and coaches.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A ROOKIE: A player with no more than 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during the previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-man player limit (excluding time in military service).

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit. The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his club's games.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

DETERMINING GAMES AHEAD/BEHIND: Subtract the team's wins from the first place club's wins and subtract the first place club's losses from the team's losses. Add the results and divide by two.

60th ANNUAL HALL OF FAME GAME: May 15

Cincinnati Reds vs. Pittsburgh Pirates
Monday, May 15 at 2 p.m. EDT, Doubleday Field

PITTSBURGH PIRATES IN THE HALL OF FAME GAME

The Pittsburgh Pirates have been selected to appear in the Hall of Fame Game for the sixth time in history, to be played at Doubleday Field in Cooperstown, May 15. The Pirates last played in the game in 1980, winning 11-8, over the Chicago White Sox. Overall, the club is 1-3-1 in Hall of Fame Games, with losses to the Texas Rangers in 1973 (6-4), the Detroit Tigers in 1968 (10-1) and the Washington Senators in 1949 (8-7). The club's only tie came in 1959 to the Kansas City Athletics (5-5) when the game was stopped in the bottom of the sixth inning due to rain.

PIRATES IN THE HALL OF FAME

A total of 36 former players, managers and executives in the Hall of Fame spent some or part of their professional careers with the Pittsburgh Pirates. Eleven of those 36 spent the majority of their careers in a Pirates uniform including Max Carey, Fred Clarke, Roberto Clemente, Ralph Kiner, Bill Mazeroski, Willie Stargell, Pie Traynor, Arky Vaughan, Honus Wagner, Lloyd Waner and Paul Waner. For a complete list of Pittsburgh Pirates in the Hall of Fame, visit the "Hall of Famers" team pages at www.baseballhalloffame.org.

NOTABLE PIRATES ARTIFACTS AT THE HALL

- Catcher's gear used by Jason Kendall during the 2004 season.
- Hats worn by Francisco Cordova and Ricardo Rincon in their combined 10-inning no-hitter on July 12, 1997.
- Ball from John Candelaria's no-hitter on August 9, 1976.
- Bat used by Rennie Stennett to collect seven hits in a doubleheader on September 16, 1975
- Uniform patch worn by the Pirates to honor Roberto Clemente following his death.
- Ball from Dock Ellis' no-hitter on June 12, 1970.
- Bat used by Hall of Famer Bill Mazeroski to hit the World Series-winning home run against the Yankees in 1960.
- Bat used by Hall of Famer Pie Traynor in the 1925 World Series against the Washington Senators.
- Cap, jersey and spikes worn by Hall of Fame shortstop Honus Wagner.
- Trophy given to the 1901 pennant-winning Pirates by the Railroad Men of Pittsburgh.

A LOOK AHEAD TO 2007
